Which was agreed to.

The President declared nominations to be in order.

Mr. Hoffman nominated Wm. Henry Lex.

The President called Mr. Lawrence to the chair.

Mr. Jacob Grim moved that Wm. Henry Lex be elected by acclamation.

Which was unanimously agreed to.

And Wm. Henry Lex was declared unanimously elected President of Common Council for the ensuing term, when Mr. Moran administered the oath of office to him.

The President then made the following address :

GENTLEMEN:—I accept the compliment of your unanimous vote with my sincere thanks, and with the intention to administer the affairs of my high office with impartiality, and with strict fidelity to the law and the rules of this Chamber.

By recalling, for a moment, the work of the past year, we will be better enabled to outline and conduct the legislation that the City now stands most in need of. Mismanagement of the affairs of the Gas Trust has, through our endeavors, given way to order and reorganization. The men who are there engaged in the work of reform need the hearty, active co-operation and assistance of our Committee, who should at the same time exercise a careful scrutiny of their accounts, so that there may not be a recurrence of the errors of the past.

Let us be careful, in every instance, of electing persons during the year to the offices within our gift, to see that men of sound common sense and good business judgment are chosen, who will devote the necessary time and thought to the work. This advice applies especially to the selection of Guardians of the Poor. Our investigation of that Department has already wrought incalculable good, but the work must go on, until the inefficient in that and every other Department are dismissed, and held to answer for their misdemeanors.

We must not cease our efforts until the Alms-house is economically managed, and the City's poor and sick are kindly cared for.

The people of Philadelphia need, perhaps, more than any thing else, well paved and cleanly streets, and an abundant supply of pure water. We have shown them our practical recognition of this fact, by electing as the heads of the departments of Water and Highways, men who are surrounding themselves with competent assistants and improved methods. We must strengthen their hands in the good work, by furnishing them with the means of carrying on their affairs.

Under the old order of things, having lost confidence in the heads of some of the departments, we, in many instances, essayed to supereede them, and attempted to perform executive rather than legislative functions. The election of new men affords us an opportunity to retrace our steps, and give them—to whom it belongs—the power, holding them to a strict accountability for its use.

The contracts recently entered into by the Highway Department show that those who propose to do the work, appreciate the fact that they must live up to their agreements; and as the officials we have just elected are men of fitness and integrity, merit our confidence, and can safely be entrusted with the expenditure of our moneys, so we, on our part, must increase some of the items of the appropriations, feeling assured that it will bring increased efficiency.

We have furnished the Chief Engineer of the Water Department with the means to meet its present pressing demands, but the problem of our future water supply requires the most serious consideration; and any plan will involve the expenditure of a large sum of money.

Our old-fashioned street pavements must give way to those of a more durable and suitable kind. It is useless to expect to have clean streets until we have good pavements. I have no doubt that if the actual cost of repair, added to the wear and tear of vehicles, could be computed, it would annually equal an amount sufficient to have any two of our principal thoroughfares paved from river to river with Belgian blocks.

All these improvements represent a class of expenditures that we must enter upon at once, and the work should be projected in view of the future growth and needs of the City. The present is a good time to stop patching and mending.

Having, as I have said, men of skill at the head of most of the departments, the problem for us to solve is that of furnishing the ways and means, which must be considered in the light of the following prominent facts:—

Our debt is about $67,000,000, (against which there is $21,617,175 in the Sinking Fund), which is the limit of the indebtedness allowed by law, and upon which we are compelled to pay annually interest amounting in all to $4,000,000. and into the sinking fund $800,000, leaving for department expenses less than $8,000,000 per annum. This takes up all the money that the tax rate raises, which has been gradually reduced, since 1877, to the present rate of $1.85. The Act of 1879, fortunately, enabled us to have a large surplus at the end of the year 1881, with which to commence, among other things, the new main intercepting sewer from Manayunk to Fairmount, a new stone bridge over the Schuylkill River at Market Street, an extension to the Chestnut Street bridge, several main sewers, and a number of new school houses. The surplus, however, is growing smaller each year by reason of the efficient manner in which our revenues have been collected, and the prospect before us in that direction, therefore, does not brighten. Still, there will probably be a considerable amount for several years yet.

I suggest, therefore, as one way to solve this problem of ways and means, that we set aside carefully the yearly surplus as a nucleus to spend upon these permanent improvements.

Then we can acquire the balance of such required amount, by raising the tax rate. In my opinion this is indispensable. The public have confidence in the ability of their present representatives to repair the profligacy of the past, and will not object to a fair increase in the tax rate or appropriations, when they feel assured that it will really bring increased efficiency. The power to effect this increased efficiency is in our keeping.

In this connection, let me call your attention to the Act of Assembly passed May 19, 1874. The bill now pending before the Legislature of this State, in my judgment seeks in a great measure to deprive us of the power to regulate our own affairs. We best know our own needs, and the law I have referred to, or one like it, drawn in a more careful and comprehensive manner, will largely help us to extricate ourselves from our present complicated form of government.

For instance, let us begin by creating a Department of Finance, where all moneys will be received and paid out. Let us divorce the Registrar's office from the Water Department, and transfer it to such a bureau. Let us have an Engineering Department, with its branches in charge of the Department of Highways, Surveys, Water, Gas, &c.

The possibilities of such a reorganization you can readily understand by the mention of these examples. A reference to the present imperfect Act of Assembly will show you, that by it, we have full power and authority to modify the powers and duties of any office or department, (excepting the Park Commission, Board of Revision and the Public Building Commission); and its title states it to be an Act conferring upon Councils of certain cities the power to reorganize the municipal departments thereof.

Your attention will often be called to the subject of telegraphy. By ordering the recent removal of the poles and wires of the Mutual Union Telegraph Company, and directing the City Solicitor to bring suit upon their bond, we have shown a determination to prevent the consolidation of competing telegraph companies, and have fixed January 1, 1885, as the time when all the poles and over-head wires are to be removed and placed in conduits under ground.

You must exercise care to distinguish between corporations formed for purely speculative purposes, and those intended to conduct their business legitimately. Besides that, if the privileges they ask for are granted too lavishly, we will soon arrive at the condition of having our streets torn up at their pleasure and kept in a constant state of turmoil.

I wish, also, to advert to a matter that has occupied the attention of Councils several times. I refer to the reorganization of the Fire Department. The fact that its management has been improved, renders its form of government no less objectionable. Commissions in municipal government mean divided responsibility, and are unbusiness-like. In this Department, in recent times, we have been given a marked exhibition of this fact, and of its use for partisan political purposes.

The removal of the Alms-house, and a portion of the County Prison is a growing necessity, and should be considered by you at once.

Upon some one of our Committees should be placed the duty of conferring with the Legislature at Harrisburg from time to time, so that the City may be represented in the consideration of the various measures, which affect our interests so largely, by those authorized to speak for Councils and the City directly.

I ask an early consideration of these few suggestions.

APPENDIX No. 2.

Philadelphia, April 2, 1883.

HON. WM. HENRY LEX.

President of Common Council,

DEAR SIR:—The Committee having charge of the erection of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument, which the Councils of the City kindly permitted to be located in the Market Square, Germantown, by an ordinance passed last year, desire to present to the City of Philadelphia, a gavel block made of a portion of a block of granite of which the monument is being constructed.

This stone was quarried between the Devil's Den and the Wheat-field—points of historic interest on the battle-field of Gettysburg: and is valuable as a memento of the battle which decided the issues of the war for the preservation of the Union.

As a former President of the Honorable Body over which you so ably preside, permit me to place this stone into your care, expressing the hope that by its aid and that of your trusty gavel, good order may be preserved and the best interests of our City furthered by appropriate legislation.

Very truly yours,

LOUIS WAGNER.

WHEREAS, It appears by the report, published in the newspapers, of the evidence taken during the last few days before the Examiner appointed by the Court in the equity case of the City against the Trustees of the Philadelphia Gas Works, that Albert C. Roberts, Esq., late President of the Board of Gas Trustees, and still a member thereof, has been furnishing said Trustees for years with supplies of groceries, liquors and segars for their personal benefit, from his grocery store at Eleventh and Vine streets, and elsewhere, and being paid therefor with the public money, to the extent in one year of more than $8000, the said Trustee concealing the same by fictitious names and fraudulent receipts signed by him on the books of said Department.

DEPARTMENT OF SURVEYS.

Philadelphia, April 5, 1883.

WM. HENRY LEX, ESQ.,

President Common Council.

DEAR SIR:—The construction of the sewer on Cohocksink Creek, from Delaware avenue to Laurel street, will enable the Department of Highways to carry out the Ordinance of March 18, 1881, to change the old Canal into a city street.

An old stone bridge which now spans the Creek at Beach street, will not then be required, and as it is in the way of constructing the sewer, it is important that your honorable bodies should determine what disposition shall be made of the material.

Respectfully submitted,

SAM'L L. SMEDLEY,

Chief Engineer and Surveyor.

APPENDIX No. 9.

DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS, BRIDGES, SEWERS AND STREET
CLEANING.Philadelphia, April 2, 1883.

To the Select and Common Councils

of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The Chief Commissioner of Highways respectfully calls attention to the fact that inspection of all public work to be done under the Highway Department, is restricted to six Assistant Commissioners, two of which are provided each with one Superintendent, and three others each with one clerk; one Assistant Commissioner has no aid.

To require one man to personally inspect street obstructions, street railways, street cleaning, pavement repairing, sewer cleaning and repairing, road repairing, bridge repairing, and serve legal notices for such repairs, and notices for repairs to all foot-ways, for one hundred and fifty or more miles of streets and roads, and to require him to make such inspection so that he can make oath to bills for the work, is to require impossibilities, and makes the requirement farcical by reason of its impracticability.

It is of the utmost importance that public work should be inspected and that instructions in detail, to adopt it to local needs, should be given. Existing ordinances do not provide means for such inspection.

Again, the city has bridges for which it paid at least seven millions of dollars. Property of this value should have intelligent care: want of such care has cost the city many thousands of dollars, as may be instanced at "South street," "Falls of Schuylkill," the salting of iron bridges, suits for damages resulting from broken bridges, etc.

To remedy some of the above defects, the passage of the accompanying ordinance is desired.

Yours, respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

APPENDIX No. 10.

DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS, BRIDGES, SEWERS AND STREET CLEANING.

Philadelphia, April 5, 1883.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—Appended is a bill of Farrell & Bro. for removing kitchen garbage from the Twenty-seventh Ward, for the month of March, under a contract similar to those for removing garbage and cleansing the entire city.

The City Controller declines to approve this, the first of the series of bills to be presented, on the ground that the specifications declare that "each bill for quarterly payment under the contracts shall be accompanied by a sworn certificate, signed by the Assistant Commissioner, that the work has been fully performed in strict accordance with the contract and specifications."

Under existing circumstances it has been and is impossible, by reason of the extent of territory and other duties imposed, for the Assistant Commissioner to make oath to such a certificate without reservation, and I cannot ask them to do it, except it be taken in a general sense that the work has been done to the best of their knowledge and ability to judge.

It is important that contractors who have faithfully done their work should be promptly paid, otherwise all work will cease.

I would therefore respectfully ask that the Controller be requested to approve bills for removing garbage and cleaning streets, when certified to under oath by an Assistant Commissioner that they are correct, said certificate to be in a form that will cover the work in general, and so far as under the circumstances is practicable for the Assistant Commissioners to make themselves sure of.

Appended is a communication from the City Controller, a copy of my answer thereto, and a second communication from the City Controller upon the same subject.

It may not be out of place to say that the work is being done under the specifications which were prepared before the present Chief Commissioner took charge of the department, and most of the contracts were awarded on bids received in answer to advertisement made prior to that date.

Very respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

DEPARTMENT OF CITY CONTROLLER.

Philadelphia, April 4, 1883.

JOHN D. ESTABROOK, ESQ.,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

DEAR SIR:—I return bill in favor of Farrell & Bro. for quarterly payment under contract for removing kitchen garbage and offal in 19th District, Twenty-seventh Ward, of April 2, 1883, because the approval under oath of A. R. Roberts, Assistant Commissioner, 6th District, accompanying it is not "a sworn certificate, signed by the Assistant Commissioner, that the work has been fully performed in strict accordance with the contract and specifications," required by the specifications made a part of the contract with the Messrs. Farrell.

This bill being the first of the kind for 1883, I do not wish to pass it without some explanation of the omission noted.

Yours truly,

S. DAVIS PAGE,

City Controller.

DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS, BRIDGES, SEWERS AND STREET
CLEANING.Philadelphia, April 4, 1883.

S. DAVIS PAGE, ESQ.,

City Controller.

DEAR SIR:—Yours of this date relative to certificate of A. R. Roberts to bill of Farrell & Bro. for removing kitchen garbage from Twenty-seventh Ward is at hand. The bill claims the amount of the contract to be $782.50, and the amount now due under the contract to be $78.25. Mr. Roberts certifies under oath that the bill "is true and correct." The certificate is general and unlimited, and implies that this bill is in accordance with the contract and specifications and that the work has been done.

It would be ridiculous to ask the Assistant Commissioner to specifically swear that the contractor had placed "his name and a number on each cart or wagon used," or to specifically swear that in every instance the garbage had been removed at regular and stated hours, especially when it is known that the Assistant Commissioner has more than one hundred and fifty miles of streets to care for, and cannot possibly even see the contractor once a day and attend to other like duties. All that is possible for him to do is to give a general certificate covering the details as far only as is practicable under the circumstances. He cannot inspect work at a dozen different places at the same instant, no matter how important such inspection may be, or how far his oath may nominally require.

Respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

I return enclosed bill in question.

DEPARTMENT OF CITY CONTROLLER.

Philadelphia, April 5, 1883.

JOHN D. ESTABROOK, Esq.,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

MY DEAR SIR:—Your explanation of the omission in the bill presented by Messrs. Farrell & Bro. of the sworn certificate required by the specification, made a part of their contract for collecting garbage, &c., in the Twenty-seventh Ward, in 1883, is, I regret to say, not convincing. This bill, though for only a small amount, must establish the rule for the approval of such work and its payment, aggregating a large sum of the tax-payer's money.

The contract provides that certain testimony in a positive form must be adduced before you can approve the bill or I can countersign the warrant. Until such evidence in form and substance as demanded by the words of the contract are furnished I must decline to approve the bill, and return it to you as not yet prepared for my action.

Yours truly,

S. DAVIS PAGE,

City Controller.

DEPARTMENT OF MARKETS AND CITY PROPERTY, WHARVES
AND LANDINGS.Philadelphia, April 5, 1883.

To the President and Members of Select and Common Councils, City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—In reply to your Resolution of April 2d, 1883, requesting me to inform you at what time the lease of South street wharf, on the river Delaware, to the Gloucester Ferry Co. expires, I desire to say that said lease expires January 1, 1886, having been executed in accordance with the provisions of an Ordinance of Councils approved October 15, 1875, entitled, "An Ordinance to authorize the Commissioner of Markets and City Property to enter into a new lease with the present lessees of South street wharf, on the river Delaware, the same to take effect upon the expiration of their present lease."

With reference to the second inquiry contained in your Resolution, (asking if there is not a provision in the original lease to the Company, which cancels the same after the said Company refuse to continue to run their boats and use the wharf as a landing after a certain length of time), I would say that upon the examination of the lease back to the year 1855, I can find nothing contained therein, which would cancel the lease upon the Company refusing to run their boats and to use the wharf as a landing.

Very respectfully, yours,

WILLIAM DIXEY,

DEPARTMENT OF CITY CONTROLLER.

Philadelphia, April 5, 1883.

To the President and Members of the Common Council of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN :—In considering the specifications of the contracts for the construction of sewers, I notice that “Item 131” provides “the contractor or his sureties will be held liable for keeping in perfect repair and good order, the whole of the new works to be constructed under the contract, for three years after the date of completion :” an intimation of the character of the work required, not only in return for the money of the property owners and the city, but also for the sanitary protection of the locality.

The ordinance of July 5, 1870 (see 1 West’s Digest, p. 82, pl. 11) requires that “all contracts with the City of Philadelphia for furnishing supplies, erection of buildings, construction of sewers, and as well all other work, labor, materials of any kind or description, shall be accompanied with a sufficient joint bond and warrant of attorney, conditioned for the faithful performance of such contracts : and the City Solicitor is “directed to enter up the said bond in court, and thereby cause judgment to be entered thereon : and said judgment shall be and remain a lien against said contractor and his sureties, until the terms of said contract have been fully and faithfully complied with.”

On December 29, 1870, ordinance approved that day, repealed so much of the foregoing " Ordinance relative to municipal contracts," " as relates to all cases of contracts for the construction of sewers, where the amount of any such contract shall not exceed the sum of three thousand (3,000) dollars." (Ord. 1870, p. 631, West's Dig., supra.)

Interpreting the action of the Finance Committee in the matter of an official bond lately before them as expressive of the sentiment of the Councils of the city, from which bodies they had been appointed, I cannot imagine that the bonds for the construction of sewers, now before me, drawn as permitted by the repealing ordinance last referred to, can furnish such reliable security, demanded by the necessity and importance of the work, as must meet the approval of Councils, when their attention is called to it.

I take the liberty, therefore, of suggesting that one of the worst evils of municipal administration in Philadelphia may be remedied by the total repeal of the " Supplement to an ordinance entitled 'An Ordinance relative to municipal contracts, approved July 5, 1870,' " so that the important work of the construction of sewers, where the amount of the contract shall not exceed $3000, shall be under the same safeguards and protection as all other contracts with the city.

Yours respectfully,

City Controller.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

Philadelphia, April 9, 1883.

HON. SAM'L G. KING,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia,

MY DEAR SIR:—Herewith I return to you the mandamus in the case of Woodland avenue.

The mandamus is not, as in some cases, the beginning of a suit, but it is the end and result of litigation. It is the judgment of the court that the city must put that avenue in order, and it must be obeyed, otherwise the city authorities will be in contempt of court.

The Chief Commissioner of Highways tells me he has no funds to do such work—the funds must be provided in some way, by transfers or otherwise. You should send a message to Councils on the subject, explaining the urgency.

Yours, very truly,

TO THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, GREETING:

WHEREAS, Thomas H. Gesner, lately in our Court of Common Pleas No. 1, for the County of Philadelphia, to wit, on the twenty-third day of December, A. D. 1882, presented his petition, setting forth:

I. That the street now called Woodland avenue, running from Forty-ninth street to Cobb's creek, in the Twenty-seventh Ward, of the City of Philadelphia, is one of the public highways of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, within the limits of the City of Philadelphia, and has been used as a public highway for more than one hundred years.

That said relator is the owner in fee of a messuage and lot of ground situate on the northwesterly side of said highway, northeast of Sixty-eighth street, in which himself and his family reside, and is also owner in fee of an undivided sixth part, and lessee for a term of years of the whole of a tract of land, containing about nine acres, situate on the northwest side of said highway, northeast and southwest of Sixty-fifth street (which runs through the same), on which he now and for many years past has carried on a brick-yard, for the purpose of the manufacture and sale of bricks: for the use, occupation, and enjoyment, of both of which properties, the first mentioned as a place of residence, with ingress and egress to and from the said highway, and the last mentioned as a brick-yard, with his own teams and those of his customers hauling bricks and other articles pertaining to his business to and from the yard, and thence up and down said highway between the points above named, it is necessary that the said highway should be kept and maintained in good order and repair, and in a condition safe and convenient for ordinary travel, in which condition, for a long time prior to the committing of the grievances hereinafter mentioned, and at the time your relator erected his residence and established his business thereon, said highway was kept and maintained.

III. That it was, and is, the duty of the City of Philadelphia, the defendant, to keep and maintain the said highway in the aforesaid good order and repair, and in a condition safe and convenient for ordinary travel, so that the relator may have the lawful use of the same as aforesaid: but in disregard and neglect of such duty, the said defendant for a long space of time prior hereto has failed and refused, and still continues to fail and refuse to keep and maintain the said highway in good order and repair, or in a condition safe and convenient for ordinary travel, and has, and still does, permit the same to be and remain greatly out of repair, and in a dilapidated, rough, uneven, muddy, and impassable condition, so that it is difficult, dangerous, and unsafe, to pass along or across the same, or to maintain lawful ingress and egress between relator's said properties and the said highway, and by reason of such neglect, default, and failure of duty, on the part of defendant, the relator is deprived of the lawful use and enjoyment of his properties abutting on said highway, and is greatly hindered and put to great costs, expenses, and loss, in the carrying on of his business, and thereby suffers irreparable injury.

IV. That the relator is without other adequate specific legal remedy in the premises.

V. And praying that a writ of mandamus might issue from our said court, directed to the City of Philadelphia, commanding it forthwith to repair the said Woodland avenue, from Forty-ninth street to Cobb's creek, in the Twenty-seventh Ward, of the City of Philadelphia, so that the said highway shall be and remain in good order and repair, and in a condition safe and convenient for ordinary travel, or show cause why such writ of mandamus should not issue.

AND, WHEREAS, on the thirty-first day of March, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and eighty-three (A. D. 1883), Lewis C. Cassidy, Esquire, Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, moved our said court for leave to be made a party plaintiff; and on the same day it was ordered that the record be amended by adding his name as party plaintiff.

Wherefore, we command that the City of Philadelphia, aforesaid, do forthwith repair the said Woodland avenue, from Forty-ninth street to Cobb's creek, in the Twenty-seventh Ward, of the City of Philadelphia, so that the said Woodland avenue shall be and remain in good order and repair, and in a condition safe and convenient for ordinary travel.

DEPARTMENT FOR SUPPLYING THE CITY WITH WATER.

Philadelphia, April 5, 1883.

HON. SAMUEL G. KING,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

SIR :—In conformity with the request of the Board of Experts, appointed in pursuance of the ordinance of June 7, 1882, to consider questions relating to the present and future water supply of the city, I have the honor to submit herewith the final report of the Board, and to request that you will transmit it to Councils for their information.

Very truly, yours.

WILLIAM LUDLOW,

Chief Engineer.

To the Select and Common Councils

of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN :—The undersigned have the honor to submit a final report upon the subjects referred to them, concerning the present and future supply of water for the city.

In the preliminary report made October 14, 1882, which your Board considered imperatively required in order that the city might avoid a short supply of water, certain recommendations were made for pumping machinery and mains, and for the construction and completion of reservoirs of distribution.

They have carefully revised the recommendations then made, and after a prolonged study of the subject, find no reason to change them in any essential particular.

In view, however, of the small amount immediately available for extensions, they recommend certain modifications in the application of the funds.

The resources understood to be available, and at the command of the Water Department, are as follows :—

1. Appropriation of December 30, 1882, For the extension of Works,	$65,000 00

Of which thirty-nine thousand five hundred (39,500) dollars should be transferred to Item 15 of the annual appropriations for "Buildings, grounds and reservoirs," and the remainder, twenty thousand (20,000) dollars, be allotted to the general contingencies of the department.

The Board would modify the recommendations previously made in regard to the character of the machinery to be obtained, to suit the altered circumstances of the case. They advise for the Schuylkill and Roxborough Works, horizontal compound duplex engines, in general character similar to the Worthington engines at those works; and for Frankford Works, a compound rotating engine, of a form in some respects modified from that already in use.

The importance of the appropriation for the Germantown main is due the imperfect supply in Germantown, the lower part of which is almost without water, and its population depending on one small main. At the same time the water supply as far south as Allegheny avenue will be greatly improved.

The appropriation for "buildings, grounds, and reservoirs," is necessary on account of the small sum allotted to this item in the appropriation bill for the current year, wherein only eighteen thousand five hundred (18,500) dollars is made to cover items specifically named, amounting to fifty-four thousand two hundred and twenty (54,220) dollars, and further by the dangerous condition of some of the reservoirs demanding immediate attention.

At Wentz Farm the slip of the bank and other defects have reduced the present capacity to less than half of the total contents, as only twelve feet of water can be carried in the lower area, as against twenty-two feet, which could be maintained were the basin in good order. At other reservoirs, also, repairs are at once required to prevent rapid deterioration.

The item of contingencies is important to provide against variations in cost from the estimates, for additional works which cannot now be estimated for, and to enable the department to deal promptly and efficiently in the event of accident. Your Board regard as indispensable to the satisfactory working of the department, that a contingent fund should annually be at its disposal.

RESERVOIRS.

In the foregoing schedule no provision is made for the reservoirs mentioned in the preliminary report. It was there stated, as to the completion of East Park, the acquisition of land for and the construction of Cambria, and the acquisition of land for and the extension of Mt. Airy, that "all of them are needed now, and will ultimately form proper centres of distribution, whatever may be the permanent source of supply for the city."

This remark is based upon the fact that the vast extent of territory to be supplied with water in the city, and the diversified character and altitude of its surfaces, point out certain locations as peculiarly fitted for points of distribution independently of the source of supply. It is not probable that better points could be selected now if the whole subject were an open one. The city has already expended large sums at East Park, and a storage for its levels of distribution of from fourteen to sixteen days supply can be had by completing it, at far less cost than in any other way. The location at Cambria and Thirtieth streets is as yet unimproved, and unless speedily acquired may be reached by building enterprises which will render it more difficult and expensive to obtain at a future time. There seems to be no better site for a reservoir to command this district, which already contains two hundred and thirty thousand persons, is now without any subsiding reservoir, and is growing more rapidly than any other part of the city. Adjacent to Mt. Airy Reservoir unimproved land can be had of suitable character and elevation at less cost than in the future. Its necessity for that section of the city is apparent when the small and totally inadequate dimensions of the present reservoir are considered.

Your Board would therefore again most urgently press upon your consideration the importance of immediately taking steps to acquire the needed land at the two points named, even if, as they are advised, no money is, at the moment, available for proceeding with the work of construction.

FUTURE SUPPLY.

Upon this most important branch of the subject your Board have bestowed much attention. But, owing to considerations hereinafter referred to, they find it impracticable at the present time to reach definite conclusions, or to submit any recommendations other than those embodied in this report.

In the preliminary report the following remarks were made :

“ Meanwhile your attention is respectfully called to the fact that complete surveys must be made, and reliable data obtained, of the localities from and through which a pure water supply can be drawn, in order to form a correct judgment as to their availability. As it is essential that this information be obtained, an appropriation for such surveys of not less than fifteen thousand (15,000) dollars is suggested.”

No steps having been taken in this direction by your Honorable bodies, it becomes necessary to again invite your attention to the subject, and your Board have included in their estimates for present expenditures, the sum of twenty thousand (20,000) dollars, which will enable the department to place in the field, at once, surveying parties, and to work up the results of their labors. Under the most favorable conditions, the greater part of a year will be consumed in procuring the information, without which no intelligent judgment can be formed. Indeed, in other cities large sums are annually expended for surveys to secure fresh information respecting the possible sources of water supply.

Recommendations heretofore presented for the supply of Philadelphia from distant points have, in the opinion of the Board, been based upon insufficient definite knowledge, and more recent investigations have shown, that in estimating the available rainfall and the effect upon the purity of the water, of impounding it for long periods, views formerly entertained, require considerable modification.

There are two main sources of supply, the Schuylkill and the Delaware, with their respective tributaries. At certain points each of these rivers furnishes an adequate amount of reasonably pure water.

At the points where the water for the city is now drawn, its impurity is constantly increasing, and is probably approaching the limit of wholesomeness.

The first enquiry, then, is clearly whether this impurity can be removed, or reduced to a safe point. If it can be so reduced, the present sources of contamination removed and guarded against for the future, and sufficient quantities be had, it is unnecessary to look to more distant sources. If this cau-not be accomplished it will be needful to draw from one or the other of these rivers at points higher up.

To answer this enquiry, and to form a judgment of the cost either of purifying the present supply, or obtaining a new one, careful detailed analyses must be made of the water obtained from different points in order to trace the causes of impurity, as well as careful topographical and geological surveys. Gaugings of the streams, and of the rainfalls over the areas draining into the Perkiomen, Skippack, Wissahickon, &c., are required, as well as the upper affluents of the Delaware, if such should be found necessary. The surveys should be especially directed to ascertaining where, to what extent, and at what cost, impounding reservoirs can be constructed, and the several available routes for conduits carefully investigated, with a view to determine their cost.

At present the larger portion of the city's supply is drawn from the Schuylkill. It is evident that so far as quantity is concerned an abundant supply can be obtained for a long time to come, for its minimum flow is not less than two hundred million gallons daily, and this might be largely increased by additional dams, as was suggested by the Park Commission sixteen years ago, and by the Board of Experts in 1875.

Formerly, the character of the Schuylkill water was of the first rank among the sources of supply for cities. If this condition could be restored, nothing better can be expected.

The first duty of the city is to remove whatever sources of contamination are imparted within its own limits. The city's ownership of so much of the banks of the river as are contained in Fairmount Park is of the greatest importance in this respect, but the efforts of the Park Commission to preserve the purity of the water have been rendered almost nugatory by the constantly increasing drainage into the river from the east bank, caused by the growth of large manufacturing industries, and their attendant populations.

Your Board believe that analyses will show that the deterioration in the quality of the Schuylkill water, justly complained of, is largely due to this cause, and that the completion of the sewer from Flat Rock to below Fairmount will tend to restore its wholesomeness by removing a most serious source of pollution. The construction of this sewer has for many years been urged upon the city authorities, first, by the Park Commission, and subsequently, by others who have considered the subject, and it is a matter for congratulation that the work is at last to be undertaken.

Supposing, however, that when this sewer is in use, and when the city has exhausted all other means of preventing contamination within its boundaries, is it possible to control the pollution of the stream at higher points?

This introduces the question, whether by suitable State legislation, riparian owners, whether individuals or communities, can be compelled to observe toward the City of Philadelphia the common obligation incident to similar rights as between individuals. The principle is well established which preserves to every person the use of running streams only so far as he does not impair their use and purity for others.

It is the opinion of your Board that the determination of the question of future supply should be entrusted to a Commission to be hereafter constituted, before whom should be laid the fullest information attained or attainable, together with such reports, plans, and projects, as may be submitted by the Water Department after the necessary data shall have been gathered.

REDUCTION OF WASTE.

Next to the importance of obtaining a proper supply of water comes the question of its economical use. Experience in other places has proved that the loss from leakage of service pipes and stop cocks, and from allowing waste of water in houses, factories, &c., is enormous, and effective means have been devised for discovering this loss.

Your Board consider it essential to an efficient conduct of the department that the Chief should be empowered to use all known means for finding and correcting this evil.

Another source of waste is the absence of proper methods of determining and valuing the use of water in factories and large public buildings. For these your Board consider that meters should be used at the discretion of the department. It is impossible even to approximate to the amount of water used, on the basis of a given size of ferrule, because the quantities passing vary in different localities, according to the pressure, and because the use in some localities is more constant than in others. The only equitable mode of assessing in such cases is by the quantity actually consumed. This at the same time should check wastefulness. In most of the large cities the use of meters for large consumers has been found of great value. On the other hand, it is not desirable to affix meters to houses.

The first cost of these meters would have to be borne by the department, but they might be made to earn a large interest on the investment, and would undoubtedly result in so considerable an increase of revenue in certain cases as to warrant a reduction in others, and the furnishing of water to houses at a cheaper rate than at present. At the same time it would be found that the consumption per capita would decrease, and with it, proportionally, the expense of the department.

SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

1st. The application of the appropriation as specified for immediate needs.

2d. The acquisition of land for reservoirs at Cambria street and Mt. Airy.

3d. The organization of a surveying staff, with duties as indicated.

4th. The consideration of general legislation for protection of streams from pollution.

5th. Adoption of measures for the prevention of waste.

CONCLUSION.

In conclusion, the undersigned deem it proper to state that owing to the prolonged absence of their colleague, Mr. Cheshbrough, caused by his illness, the responsibility thrown upon them has been greatly increased, and they deeply regret that they, as well as their fellow citizens, have been deprived of his valuable services during the latter portion of their labors.

Respectfully submitted,

APPENDIX No. 49.

Philadelphia, April 28th, 1883.

To the Committee on Highways.

GENTLEMEN:—In the Twenty-eighth Ward, Pulaski avenue, north from Nicetown lane, crosses three tracks of the Richmond branch of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad by a wooden king-post truss bridge that is very much decayed, and is now quite unsafe. An entire new structure is required, and it should be an iron plate girder bridge, costing about four thousand (4,000) dollars.

The same avenue in the immediate vicinity crosses the Germantown Branch Railroad, and its several connections, and all at different elevations, so there is much need of a general revision of grades for Pulaski avenue before a new bridge is erected. Prompt action at this point is advisable.

Respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

APPENDIX No. 78.

Philadelphia, May 8, 1883.

To the Presidents and Members of Select and
Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The Chief Commissioner of Highways respectfully asks for the transfer of three thousand four hundred and forty-nine (3,449) dollars and ninety-nine (99) cents, balance remaining from contracts for street repairs of last year, brought from books of 1882 to Item 3 of 1883, to Item 24, for cleaning streets, &c., for the present year. Also, for the transfer of the following amounts, viz.: three thousand five hundred and sixty (3,560) dollars, balance remaining from change of grade of Market street, eight hundred and ninety-nine (899) dollars and ninety-five (95) cents, balance remaining for construction of retaining wall on Market street, and five hundred and seventy (570) dollars, balance remaining for paving Third street, from Walnut to Arch street, to Item 7, for repairing and rebuilding bridges for the present year.

The prompt consideration of these matters is urged, for the following reasons:

1st. No contract for cleaning the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Wards (Ninth District) can be awarded, because the lowest bid is thirteen thousand nine hundred and fifty (13,950) dollars, while the balance of appropriation applicable thereto, is but twelve thousand two hundred (12,200). A small amount should be available for contingencies; hence we ask for the transfer of three thousand four hundred and forty-nine (3,449) dollars and ninety-nine (99) cents.

A contract for cleaning the Ninth District, for ten months of the present year, was awarded March 2 to G. H. Wehn, for the sum of eleven thousand six hundred and forty-one (11,641) dollars and sixty-seven (67) cents. He prosecuted the work fairly well from March 5 to April 23, with the aid of some carts put on and paid for by this department, but failed to furnish any security whatever, or to fully pay his men, though he claims to have paid out one thousand eight hundred (1,800) dollars of his own funds, and he received none from the city. His contract was therefore annulled, and the work readvertised, resulting in the reception of two bids, viz.: fifteen thousand nine hundred (15,900) dollars, and thirteen thousand nine hundred and fifty (13,950) dollars.

Last year the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Wards, with six others, making eight wards, were included in one district: but, apportioning them according to areas of paved streets, the cost of cleaning the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Wards was thirteen thousand four hundred (13,400) dollars.

Repairs to Falls bridge, bridges over Gunner's run, and a large number of smaller bridges, are very much needed, while the cost of such needed repairs will far exceed the balance of appropriation available. We therefore propose, as above, an addition of about five thousand (5,000) dollars to the item, by transfer of unexpended balances from last year.

Very respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

APPENDIX No. 79.

Philadelphia, May 12, 1883.

WM. HENRY LEX, Esq.,

President of Common Council.

DEAR SIR:—Appended is an ordinance setting aside five thousand five hundred (5,500) dollars, for extending the improved Asphalt pavement on North Broad street, to Diamond street.

The present appropriation of thirty thousand (30,000) dollars for that pavement, will admit of laying the same from Columbia avenue north to about midway between Norris and Diamond streets. The length of the pavement is decreased, by reason of the increase in width, made by a recent ordinance of Councils, changing the relative width of sidewalks and cart-way, north from Montgomery avenue.

It is important that the matter receive consideration before the contractor completes his work there and removes his machinery.

Respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

APPENDIX No. 80.

Philadelphia, May 11, 1883.

WM. HENRY LEX, Esq.,

President of Common Council.

SIR:—Provision does not seem to have been made, by appropriation or ordinance, for paving over water mains.

Several mains laid within the past few months have not yet been paved over, and need immediate attention. We further learn that several miles of water mains may be laid this year, and the Water Department claim that the Highway Department should provide for all paving over the same.

In some wards this may involve expense exceeding the total allotment for repairing paved streets in said wards, while general pavement repairs, aside from paving over water mains, require much more than the full allotment from present appropriations.

I learn from a former Purveyor in the Water Department, that until recently it was customary for the Purveyor to pave over water mains by day's work, at the expense of the Water Department, and for the Highway Department to pave over breaks for house connections alone.

This subject has been brought to the attention of the Committee on Highways, and the Chief Engineer of the Water Department, and both claim that they cannot consider the matter. The Chief Commissioner of Highways respectfully calls the attention of Councils to the need of defining whose duty it should be to pave over water mains, and how such work shall be paid for.

Very respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

APPENDIX No. 81.

Philadelphia, May 11, 1883.

WM. HENRY LEX, ESQ.,

President of Common Council.

DEAR SIR:—Appended is an ordinance for grading and for extending the contract for macadamizing South Broad street, from Passyunk avenue to Moyamensing avenue, and making an appropriation therefor.

An appropriation, fifteen thousand (15,000) dollars was made last year for macadamizing South Broad street, from Passyunk avenue to League Island, a distance of about two miles. Two years ago the Manager of the House of Correction macadamized about one and a half miles in length at the southern end—that is, from League Island to Moyamensing avenue. From Moyamensing avenue to Passyunk avenue, a distance of about 3,000 feet, no stone was put on. The contract under the appropriation of fifteen thousand (15,000) dollars last year, contemplated a width of road of 18 feet throughout, from Passyunk avenue to League Island, and a depth of 16 inches on the northern section—that is, from Passyunk avenue to Moyamensing avenue—and only 4 inches on the balance—that is, from Moyamensing avenue to League Island.

Though the contract was made last year, work was not commenced till this spring: and then when the surface mud was scraped from the section that had before been macadamized, it was found that the mass had been much disturbed and broken up, and it was necessary to put on 4 to 6 inches in depth of additional stone from the House of Correction, to level the surface, and make it suitable to receive the finish of 4 inches of trap rock. This has been done, and the finishing surface of trap rock put in place, from League Island to Hollander's creek, a length of fully 3,000 feet. From Hollander's creek to Moyamensing avenue, the mud has been removed, and the surface is ready for the delivery of the levelling course of stone from the House of Correction before the finishing 4 inches of trap rock can be put in place.

From Moyamensing avenue to Passyunk avenue the street was some years ago graded and curbed for a cobble-paved cartway, 23 feet wide, adjacent to each sidewalk, and a space 31 feet wide in the centre, for two rows of trees, and a dirt road between. This central space has been raised from time to time with gravel and ashes, till now it is quite variable, but about 18 inches above grade. It is desired to remove both rows of trees, and grade the street surface to a uniform cambre from gutter to gutter, and to make the macadam 31 feet wide in this section in place of 18 feet wide, as was contemplated in the contract for fifteen thousand (15,000) dollars' worth of work. The price under said contract is one (1) dollar and thirty (30) cents per square yard for a depth of 16 inches, and the contractor is willing to pave an additional width at the same rate per yard.

It may be mentioned that, some years ago, the portion of Broad street from Washington avenue to Snyder avenue was similarly graded, and the central portion, 31 feet in width, was paved with Belgian blocks.

Authority is needed to remove the trees and two rows of thin curbstone, bordering a portion of the 31 feet wide space, grade the surface, and extend the macadam to a width of 31 feet.

The total cost is estimated at nine thousand five hundred (9,500) dollars for the above additional work.

Very respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

To the Select and Common Councils

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the sum of five thousand five hundred (5,500) dollars, in addition to the amount already so ordered, be set aside from Item 3 of the appropriation from the surplus to the Department of Highways, (ordinance of June 21, 1882), for the completion of the improved pavement on Broad street, as far north as Diamond street, and that the amount of the contract already executed for said work, be extended to that amount.

APPENDIX No. 85.

DEPARTMENT OF CITY CONTROLLER.

Philadelphia, May 17, 1883.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—At an adjourned meeting of the Sinking Fund Commissioners, held this morning, the regular meeting on the second Tuesday of the current month having been unavoidably postponed, the Secretary of the Commissioners laid before them a certificate for three thousand and eighty-seven (3,087) shares of the capital stock of the North Pennsylvania Railroad Company, bearing date the 28th day of April, 1883, and issued in the name of "The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of the City of Philadelphia," which he said, and so reported to the Commissioners, that he had received on the day of its date from F. A. Conly, the President of the said Company, in return for two certificates of scrip "convertible into stock," for the like amount of stock of the date of the years 1873 and 1874, issued in the name of "The Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of Philadelphia," which he had received from Mr. Thomas Cochran on the 28th day of April, 1883.

Mr. Thomas Cochran then made the following statement:

"Information was received by me that there was non-interest bearing scrip dividend made in 1873 and 1874, which the city had never lifted, which had come up in the final settlement of the North Pennsylvania stock syndicate purchase. I soon after went to the office and examined the records, and satisfied myself that the city was entitled to the stock, and that this non-interest bearing scrip was convertible into stock. As the dividend occurred in a few days, I thought it best to take up the scrip at once. Mr. Hirst, the Secretary, came down with me to the office and the scrip was converted into the stock, three thousand and eighty-seven (3,087) shares, and a receipt given for the same."

There have been paid by the North Pennsylvania Railroad Company semi-annual dividends since the year 1875 inclusive, at the rate of eight per cent. (or $4.00 on each share) per annum in 1875, and six per cent. (or $3.00 on each share) per annum in each succeeding year, which dividends, if payable on the three thousand and eighty-seven (3,087) shares just received, amounts to the sum of eighty-two thousand five hundred and and seventy-seven (82,577) dollars and twenty-five (25) cents, including the dividend of May, 1883.

The present Commissioners had no knowledge of the existence of any scrip dividend not converted, and there was nothing to put any of them upon inquiry. The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, at the date of the agreement for the sale of thirty thousand eight hundred and seventy (30,870) shares of the capital stock of the North Pennsylvania Railroad Company, with Messrs. Pardee, E. C. Knight, Lewis, Conly, Dobbins, Stevenson, et al. February 2, 1875, were Hon. John Welsh, Hon. William S. Stokley and Samuel P. Hancock, Esq., but nothing has ever been learned from these gentlemen respecting this stock dividend of ten (10) per cent. upon the stock of said Company, held by them as Commissioners of the Sinking Fund at that time, and the books, reports and statements of the Sinking Fund, gave no information on the subject.

In 1871 the Sinking Fund Commissioners held twenty-eight thousand (28,000) shares of this stock, and in April, 1871, there was a scrip dividend of fourteen hundred (1,400) shares thereon, and in June, 1874, there was a further scrip dividend thereon of fourteen hundred and seventy (1,470) shares, so that at the beginning of the year 1873 the total number of shares of the capital stock of the North Pennsylvania Railroad Company, standing upon the ledger of the Sinking Fund, was thirty thousand eight hundred and seventy (30,870), being the exact amount covered by the agreement of sale referred to, and the entire number of shares of said stock that the present Commissioners ever supposed the city was entitled to.

The value of the stock thus placed in the Sinking Fund, at market rates is two hundred and eight thousand three hundred and seventy-two (208,372) dollars and fifty (50) cents, which added to the dividends not paid, if due, would make an increase to the city's assets of two hundred and ninety thousand nine hundred and forty-nine (290,949) dollars and seventy-five (75) cents.

The Commissioners desire to place the whole matter before your Honorable Bodies so that there can be no misunderstanding of their position in the premises, and that the City Solicitor may be directed to take such action in the matter as may establish any claim the City of Philadelphia has by reason thereof. With great respect,

Your obedient servants,

SAMUEL G. KING,
S. DAVIS PAGE,

Sinking Fund Commissioners.

APPENDIX No. 87.

Philadelphia, May 17, 1883.

To the Honorable, the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

We hereby certify, that pursuant to the authority vested in us by Ordinance, entitled "An Ordinance to authorize satisfaction to be entered in certain cases of taxes which appear to be delinquent," approved March 24, 1883, we have heard applications of tax payers in the cases mentioned in the Schedule hereto annexed; and having been satisfied, by the proof submitted in such cases respectively, that said properties should not be held liable for delinquent taxes thereon, we have so certified to the Collector of Delinquent Taxes, and now, within thirty days after our findings, make report thereof to your Honorable bodies.

GEO. W. FAIRMAN,

W. LOUGHLIN,

SIMON GRATZ,

Board of Revision of Taxes.

The applications embraced in the accompanying Schedule, are those of tax payers who either requested W. J. Whartenby to pay their taxes for them, or for whom he volunteered to perform this service. As the tax payers acted in good faith, knowing that Mr. Whartenby was Deputy Receiver, and believing that payment of taxes so made for them was equivalent to payment at the Office of Receiver of Taxes, we think relief should be afforded them.

APPENDIX No. 88.

Philadelphia, May 16, 1883.

WM. HENRY LEX, ESQ.,

President of Common Council.

DEAR SIR:—Appended is a resolution, requesting the Chief Commissioner of Highways and the City Controller, to approve and countersign bills of the District Surveyors for measurement of repairs to paved streets, the amount to be paid from the appropriation for such repairs.

Last year repairs to paved streets were contracted for in bulk without measurement by the District Surveyors. This year when the matter came up before the Committee on Highways there was a very generally expressed opinion that measurements should be made by the Highway Department, rather than by District Surveyors, so that repairs could be confined to points of greatest need, and the whole appropriation be not exhausted in a few squares. The work was advertised to be done by the yard, and contractors were instructed that measurements would be made by the Highway Department without expense to contractors, and the contracts with the city were made, stipulating that measurements would be made without cost to the contractor. Such measurements have been made so far by employees of the department, but the City Solicitor decides that measurements by the District Surveyors must, by Ordinance of May 12, 1864, be made before the contractors can be paid, hence the need for a resolution providing for the payment of bills for measurement.

It may be stated that the Ordinance of May 12, 1864, requiring measurements by the District Surveyors, does not appear in the Digest under the head of "Highway Department," but does appear under "Surveys," and the Chief Commissioner was not aware of the existence of such an Ordinance till since contracts were made.

Very respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

APPENDIX No. 89.

RESOLUTION

Of request to the City Controller to approve bills of the District Surveyors for measuring street repairs.

Resolved, by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, That the City Controller be, and is, hereby requested to approve bills presented by the Chief Commissioner of Highways, to pay the District Surveyors for measuring repairs to paved streets, and take the amount therefor from Item 3 in the annual appropriation to the Department of Highways, for the year 1883.

APPENDIX No. 90.

Copy of Minutes of the Proceedings of the Delegates of The Board of Trade, The Commercial Exchange, The Maritime Exchange, and The Vessel Owners' and Captains' Association, for the purpose of making Nominations to the City Councils for the Office of Port Wardens.

Philadelphia May 14, 1883.

A joint meeting of the representatives, appointed by the several organizations designated by an Ordinance of the City Councils to name Candidates for Port Wardens, was held at the office of the Delaware Mutual Safety Insurance Company, at one P. M.

On motion of Mr. Henry Winsor, Mr. Thomas C. Hand was called to the chair, and Mr. Wilson Welsh, elected Secretary.

The Vessel Owners' and Captains' Association was represented by Henry R. Edmunds, Henry D. May, and Joseph W. Wilson; The Board of Trade by Thomas C. Hand, Henry Winsor, James A. Wright, William Broekie, and W. S. Russell; The Maritime Exchange by W. F. Hagar, F. A. Churchman, and D. S. Stetson; The Commercial Exchange by its President, H. K. Cummings, L. T. Deroussee, and Wilson Welsh.

On a motion to proceed to name candidates being adopted, the Chairman of the Board of Trade Committee presented six names, upon which objection was made by Mr. Edmunds, of the Vessel Owners' and Captains' Association, who offered the following resolution: Resolved, That each organization present four names only, of persons desired by them to act as Port Wardens. After a lengthy discussion upon the construction of the Ordinance of Councils, and the precedents established by previous Conventions, the resolutions was voted upon and lost. Mr. Edmunds thereupon announced that, under instruction from the Vessel Owners' and Captains' Association, their delegation must withdraw, and decline to take any further part in making the nominations, and they thereupon withdrew.

A motion was then made by Mr. Broekie, and adopted, that we proceed to select sixteen names for presentation to Councils, each name to be voted upon separately.

The representatives from the Board of Trade, Maritime Exchange, and Commercial Exchange, having omitted bringing their credentials, a motion by Mr. H. K. Cummings, that the Convention adjourn over until one P. M., on Tuesday the 15th, to enable them to obtain and present their credentials in proper form, was adopted, and the Secretary was instructed to notify the Vessel Owners' and Captains' Association of such adjournment.

WILSON WELSH,

Secretary.

The foregoing statement of the proceedings in Convention, on Monday, the 14th inst., is correct, according to my best knowledge and belief.

THOMAS C. ILAND,

The Commercial Exchange, by Wilson Welsh, L. T. Deroussee, and G. W. Elkins.

On motion of Mr. Jas. A. Wright, (Mr. Thos. C. Hand, being unavoidably absent), Mr. Henry Winsor was called to the chair.

The credentials of the Delegates representing the Vessel Owners' and Captains' Association, The Maritime Exchange, The Commercial Exchange, and The Board of Trade, were presented and read by the Secretary.

Mr. Edmunds objected to the acceptance of the credentials presented by the delegates representing the Board of Trade, on the ground, that the definition of their duties was not in accordance with the Ordinance of Councils. On motion of Mr. W. F. Hagar, it was decided that the objection should not be sustained.

Mr. Edmunds offered the following:

Resolved, That the Convention submit to Councils as proper persons for re-election as Port Wardens, the name of the present Wardens whose term is about to expire, and in addition thereto, the names of eight other persons as suitable for such positions, two of such additional names to be named each by the Board of Trade, Commercial Exchange, Maritime Exchange, and Vessel Owners' and Captains' Association, respectively.

The resolution was not agreed to.

Mr. Broekie moved that the resolution adopted at the previous meeting, indicating the mode in which the nominations should be made and voted for, should be reconsidered.

Which was agreed to.

Mr. Edmunds moved, that the Board of Trade, the Commercial Exchange, Maritime Exchange, and Vessel Owners' and Captains' Association shall each have the privilege of naming two persons only, as candidates for appointment as Port Wardens, and that the other eight names be selected separately by the aggregate Convention.

Mr. Hagar moved the following amendment :

Resolved, That the Convention proceed to the nomination of sixteen names for Port Wardens, in accordance with the ordinance upon this subject passed by Councils, and that each Association here represented shall place in nomination all the names it may desire, without limiting the number to each body, which this Convention understands to be the correct interpretation of the ordinance as passed by Councils. The amendment of Mr. Hagar, after a lengthy discussion, participated in by Messrs. Winsor, Wright, Brockie, Elkins, Edmunds, and Welsh, was adopted.

A motion to proceed to nominate sixteen names from the names submitted, was adopted.

The representatives of the Vessel Owners' and Captains' Associations hereupon withdrew.

On motion it was resolved that each name submitted be voted upon separately.

The Board of Trade presented the following names: Edward K. Stevenson, William R. Tucker, Joseph S. Keen, William Taggart, and Joseph T. Elwell.

The Maritime Exchange presented the names of Isaac Hough, Thomas Blakey, A. A. Catanach, Benjamin S. Janney, Jr., L. K. Passmore, Owen Brady, Samuel McDonald, and John Baizley.

The Commercial Exchange presented the names of John Gardner, Samuel T. Kerr, Edward L. Drouin, F. H. Mattson, Charles P. Perot, and S. C. Woolman.

On motion, Mr. D. S. Stetson was appointed Teller. The names of the nominees were then called off by the Secretary, in the order given, and each name voted upon separately.

The Teller reported the following as having received the highest number of votes: E. K. Stevenson, W. R. Tucker, J. S. Keen, Jr., William Taggart, Joseph S. Elwell, Isaac Hough, Thomas Blakey, A. A. Catanach, Benjamin S. Janney, Jr., L. K. Passmore, John Gardner, Samuel T. Kerr, Edward L. Drouin, F. H. Mattson, Charles P. Perot, and Samuel C. Woolman.

On motion of Mr. Brockie, it was resolved that the list of nominees be referred to a Committee, to be composed of the chairmen of the various Committees, who are requested to promptly arrange the nominations for presentation to Councils.

On motion of Mr. Elkins, it was resolved that three hundred copies of the proceedings of the Convention be printed, for the use of the Organization composing the Convention, and that a copy be sent to each member of Councils.

WILSON WELSH,

Secretary.

The foregoing statement of the proceedings in Convention at the adjourned meeting, on Tuesday, the 15th inst., is correct, according to my best knowledge and belief.

APPENDIX No. 91.

Philadelphia, May 17, 1883.

JOHN ECKSTEIN, ESQ.,

Clerk Common Council.

MY DEAR SIR:—I received yours of the 4th inst., enclosing a copy of the resolution of Councils requesting the City Solicitor to say “whether the Act of May 23, 1874, governing the award of contracts, and prohibiting members of Councils from being interested in the same, applies to the Board of Trustees of the Philadelphia Gas Works.”

I reply thereto as follows: The language of the sixth section of the Act of 1874, P. L. 233, is as follows: “All stationery, printing, paper and fuel used in Councils, and all work and materials required by the city shall be furnished, and the printing and all other kinds of work to be done for the city, shall be performed under contract to be given to the lowest responsible bidder, under such regulations as shall be prescribed by ordinance; and it shall be the duty of Councils forthwith to enact such ordinance; no member or officer of Councils, or any department of the city government, shall be in any way interested in such contract, directly or indirectly, either at its inception or during the progress of its fulfilment, or furnish any materials or supplies or labor for such contract.”

It is very evident that the Act from which I have quoted forbids a member of Councils to be in any way interested in any contract to do work for or furnish materials to the city, and, therefore, if the Trustees of the Philadelphia Gas Works are the agents of the city, contracts with them by Councilmen are unlawful.

That the Trustees do represent the city cannot be denied; they were established by Councils as a means for conducting the city's business of gas making, they are creatures of Councils, are selected by them, get all their powers from them, are supervised by a Councils' committee, and find every authority which they can properly claim, within the limits of some ordinance of Councils.

In the case of Wheeler vs. The City, 27 P. F. Smith, page 355, Judge Paxson says: "We do not think the Gas Works have any separate entity. They resemble the Water Department and the Fairmount Park."

On page 353, he further says that "it is clear that the Gas Works are the property of the City of Philadelphia." See also Western Saving Fund Society vs. The City, 7 Casey, pages 178 and 185.

Since the property belongs to the city, the money in the hands of the Trustees, and arising from its use, is her money, and its expenditure is, therefore, subject to the laws which govern the expenditure of all municipal moneys.

The question is not affected by the fact that the Trustees are not dependent upon yearly appropriations by Councils, for their funds. They have control of funds arising from the business, only by reason of ordinances which are continuous in their effect.

I am, therefore, of opinion that a contract between a member of Councils and the Trustees of the Gas Works is unlawful, in that it is contrary to the spirit and purpose of the Act of May 23, 1874.

Yours, very truly,

WM. NELSON WEST,

City Solicitor.

APPENDIX No. 94.

Philadelphia, May 17, 1883.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN :—In compliance with the resolution passed by Councils, April 19, 1883, requesting the Superintendent of the Police and Fire-Alarm Telegraph to inform Councils of all corporations, firms and persons having telegraph, telephone or electrical-lighting wires, electrical conductors or cables running through the city of Philadelphia, overhead or underground, according to section 6 of an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to regulate the introduction and use of underground conduits, wires, &c., and provide charges for overhead and underground wires," approved March 30, 1883, also the number of miles returned, time of making return, and the amount due by them to be paid to the City Treasurer.

I herewith furnish you a list of the returns made to this department by the different parties, including the license charges for maintenance of telegraph poles and attachments to the telegraph poles belonging to the City, as required by ordinances of December 21, 1880, and January 6, 1881. The total number of miles of wire returned is three thousand and sixty-seven and nine-sixteenths ( $3,067\frac{9}{16}$ ), and the license charges for the same is seven thousand eight hundred and ten ( $7,810$ ) dollars, which was due and payable on or before the first Monday of May, 1883.

The only party delinquent in making a return is the National Underground Electric Company, who have conduits laid on Market street. I have notified them several times to make return in compliance with the ordinance, approved June 16, 1881, granting them permission to lay their patent conduits for electrical conductors under certain streets, but as yet they have failed to make the necessary return to this department for wires or length of conduits, nor has payment been made to the City Treasurer. The amount due by them to the City for the years 1882 and 1883, is about three hundred ( $300$ ) dollars.

The City Treasurer has notified me that the following corporations have failed to pay the license charges for maintenance of their wires, as required by the ordinance:

Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Co.,	158 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles,	\$397.50
Continental	" 42 "	105.00
Western Union	" 588 $\frac{3}{4}$ "	1,472.50
Mutual Union	" 266 "	665.00
Bell Telephone	" 838 $\frac{1}{5}$ "	2,097.50

The Mutual Union Telegraph Company, in addition, have failed to pay the license charges for maintenance of five hundred and fifty-two ( $552$ ) poles at one ( $1$ ) dollar, five hundred and fifty-two ( $552$ ) dollars.

There has been paid into the City treasury to date from attachments to City poles, maintenance of poles and wires, the sum of twelve thousand five hundred and fifty-one (12,551) dollars and fifty (50) cents.

The annual sheets will show all of the returns made to this department.

Very respectfully,

W. J. PHILIPS.

GENTLEMEN:—The Committee on Finance respectfully report that they have considered the petition for relief of Wm. H. H. Achuff, contractor, for keeping in repair and good order during the year of 1882, sewers, inlets and necks north of Market street, re-trapping and new-trapping inlets; also to perform similar work south of Market street, the price for the First District being eight thousand and nine hundred (8,900) dollars and Second District five thousand and nine hundred (5,900) dollars. It appears that in consequence of the extraordinary rain storm, which took place during the month of September of said year, a large number of breaks occurred to the sewers, the cost to repair which will amount to as much as his two contracts, fourteen thousand and eight hundred (14,800) dollars. The Committee are of opinion that he should have some relief. They therefore submit the annexed ordinance to make an appropriation for said purpose and recommend its passage.

APPENDIX No. 114.

Philadelphia, May 17, 1883.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—Under the authority of a "Joint Resolution of Councils, we were directed to investigate the alleged abuse in awarding contracts for meat by the Managers of the House of Correction," and in pursuance of said instructions we have made a thorough examination of the subject, having had before us and under oath several of the managers, officers and employees of the Institution, together with the real contractor for mutton for 1882, as well as the party whose bid was ruled out March 10, 1883, because of allegations made by other bidders relative to an alleged attempt of bribery of one of the managers and also of certain bidders.

We have sifted the matter exhaustively and thoroughly; have examined the rules and regulations adopted by the Managers of the House of Correction for the protection of the City, and we are forced to the conclusion from the testimony submitted, that in all matters connected with meat contracts, the general interests of the city are well protected, and from the guards thrown around the reception of bids, the awarding of contracts, the receipt of supplies and their payment, it would seem to be almost impossible for the city to be wronged or defrauded by dishonest contractors.

The managers were represented by a committee who were present and anxious to assist the committee in the discharge of their duty, and were desirous of doing all in their power to have a thorough investigation.

It is due to them to say, that not the slightest evidence was submitted to show any attempt at wrong doing on the part of the managers, officers or employees of the Institution.

It appears, from the evidence, that it is the custom of the managers to award contracts for supplies always to the lowest bidder, regardless of the fact whether the lowest bidder is regularly engaged in the business; in this they appear to be sustained by a letter from the City Solicitor under date March 4, 1881. In this we differ, and are of opinion that bids should be received only from those engaged in the business.

It is hardly just, however, to condemn the act, as the managers are guided by the opinion of the Law Officer of the City.

We recommend, however, that Councils shall pass an ordinance broad enough to cover this point, so that there may be a uniformity in all the Departments of the City Government on this subject.

We also recommend that new bids be invited for mutton for the balance of the present year.

We submit the annexed resolution and recommend its passage.

John Bardsley (Ch'n), Geo. H. McCully, Henry Johnson, John Taylor, Thos. Green, Chas. Lawrence, Jos. L. Jones.

RESOLUTION

To discharge the Joint Special Committee to investigate into the alleged abuse in the award of contract for meat by the Managers of the House of Correction.

Resolved, by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, That the Joint Special Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the resolution to investigate the alleged abuse in the award of contracts for meat by the Managers of the House of Correction.

APPENDIX No. 115.

Philadelphia, May 17, 1883.

To the Presidents and Members of Select and
Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The undersigned, members of your Joint Committee appointed to report on the matter of the supply of meat to the House of Correction, being unable to assent to the report of the majority of the Committee, beg leave to present the following as their conclusions on the matter:

No testimony was offered before the Committee relating to any subject except the supply of meat, nor was it contemplated by the joint resolution that such testimony should be taken. No occasion, therefore, exists for your Committee to express any opinion on the general management of the House, or on any other matter than the meat question.

The undersigned concur in the change recommended by the majority of the Committee in the method of advertising for mutton, and in the mode to be hereafter adopted for supplying that institution with meats, so far as to require that a contractor should actually be in the business for which he contracts, and that the Board should readvertise for mutton for the present year.

In view of the Act of Assembly of 23d May, 1874, and ordinance of 20th March, 1868, the award of the mutton contract to Rinehart was clearly illegal, and, so far as he and Bradley are concerned, was a palpable fraud upon the Board. While the words of the act may not plainly include such supplies as provisions, the object and intent of the law was evidently to prevent others than persons in the actual business from contracting to furnish supplies of every kind. Rinehart was clerk for Bradley on a salary, and was a butcher neither by trade nor pursuit. The object of Bradley was to obtain a contract for himself, and to allow himself opportunity to go his own security without calling in others. Bradley furnished the meat and received the pay therefor under a power of attorney from Rinehart, Rinehart himself never having received a dollar thereof. This certainly is not in accord with the view of the law generally entertained, at least by members of Councils. A repetition of a like action hereafter ought to be regarded as highly reprehensible.

The testimony of the witnesses produced before the Committee was conflicting. Stewart, who testified most strongly against the Managers, was actuated, as he himself admitted, by motives looking only "to get even with Bradley," who had, through Rinehart, underbid him. Bradley flatly contradicted him, as well as did others, including members of the Board and their employees. Mr. Wernitz, a member of Councils, testified that he saw a car-load of sheep—in number two hundred and forty (240)—belonging to Stewart, about one-half of which consisted of sickly, underweighted animals, which he heard were bought for the House. He saw some of these the next day in a wagon, the driver of which said he was going to the place with them. That they reached the House does not so clearly appear that we are authorized to state that as a fact. Bradley's contract was for four and seventy-four one hundredths ( $4\frac{74}{100}$ ) cents per pound. The evidence was that good sheep could not be furnished for that price. We are unable to say positively that any bad meat was supplied to the House with the exception of that mentioned, which, from the testimony, it would appear to us went to the House. In this the testimony of Stewart is strongly corroborated by Mr. Werntz.

The Committee labored under some difficulty about procuring testimony. A resolution passed by them, asking Councils to guarantee Correction employees from discharge who should testify before them, was returned with disapproval. The result of that action was, in our judgment, almost to preclude the hope of obtaining testimony against the Board, if such existed.

In conclusion, we are of the opinion that there was not sufficient testimony before us to justify us in bringing any charges against the Board. The examination was not exhaustive; the witnesses were few and contradictory, and several of them unreliable; such testimony as was taken was not properly reduced to writing, although attention was called in due time to that fact; and we are unable to come to any satisfactory conclusion in regard to this important matter.

George R. Snowden, A. Haller Gross.

APPENDIX No. 117.

Philadelphia, May 24, 1883.

To the President of Common Council of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—As I was President of the North Pennsylvania Railroad Company when the subscription for twenty-eight thousand (28,000) shares of its capital stock were jointly made and paid by the old city, and three districts, prior to Consolidation in 1854, whereupon said shares became an asset of the Consolidated City corporation, I write to suggest that Councils institute and prosecute such vigorous inquiry as will make clear how it was, and why it was, that one hundred and fifty-four thousand three hundred and fifty (154,350) dollars of dividend scrip, bearing no interest, but convertible into three thousand and eighty-seven (3,087) capital shares, entitled to dividends, continued of record, unconverted, on the books of the North Pennsylvania Railroad Company, from 1875 to 1882, both inclusive—a period of eight (8) years—whereby there was withheld from the City and lost to its treasury, sixteen (16) half-yearly dividends, amounting to seventy-seven thousand one hundred and seventy-five (77,175) dollars.

It is alleged, as I have read in the newspapers, that the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund were, in 1875, notified, one time, that a scrip dividend awaited conversion into capital stock; a plea preposterous, in my opinion, inasmuch as it was the duty of the President of the North Pennsylvania Railroad Company, every time a dividend was declared, to see to it that information so important should not be held back, nor sent to a wrong address, since thereby the city would incur loss.

Fidelity to duty on the part of the salaried President of the North Pennsylvania Railroad Company (almost a sinecure situation since the road was leased, May 14, 1879) would have rendered impossible such unjust, if not dishonest, discrimination against the principal stockholder, whose municipal subscription assured the construction of the North Pennsylvania Railroad to the Lehigh river; a fact I can certify to without reservation, for I projected the road, and am familiar with its history, not a little of which I long ago put in print, where it could not perish, like manuscript matter in corporation books kept by tricksters.

Instead of a "discovery," as I have seen it named in the newspapers, it was a confession that was made when, in this present month of May, twelve thousand seven hundred and eighty-four (12,784) shares of stock, the last block of the thirty thousand eight hundred and seventy (30,870) shares, sold to a syndicate in 1875, was transferred: for then the one hundred and fifty-four thousand three hundred and fifty (154,350) dollars of scrip of record in the city's name, convertible so long ago as 1875 into capital stock, became a matter of "urgency" (in the sense of that word in the French Chamber), because there it was in the name of the city, an asset not lawfully transferable to the syndicate of procrastinators, whose contract was for thirty thousand eight hundred and seventy (30,870) shares, no scrip extra nor inclusive.

There should always be a penitentiary above the horizon, where there are fiscal magicians in the foreground.

The company could not make out its balance-sheet, and the company's auditor could not audit its accounts, and same time be in ignorance of the unconverted scrip of 1875, continuing unproductive to the city on the company's books.

In verity, in the North Pennsylvania Railroad Company's balance-sheet accompanying its annual report for 1878—the last one published in pamphlet form, as I believe on information—there is this item, to wit: "Convertible scrip;" showing that the scrip unconverted at date October 31, 1878, had been counted before entry.

In the report of the Secretary of Internal Affairs for 1882, is the report of the North Pennsylvania Railroad Company for year ending October 31, 1882, sworn and subscribed to by Franklin A. Comly, President, on the 9th January, 1883, wherein it is represented that the capital and debt were in these amounts, to wit:

Capital stock paid in, . . . . .	$4,401,950 00
Funded debt, . . . . .	7,112,000 00
Floating debt, . . . . .	29,819 08
<hr/>
Total capital and debt, . . . . .	$11,543,769 08

As the City's one hundred and fifty-four thousand three hundred and fifty (154,350) dollars of dividend scrip made out in certificates in 1875, was not converted into three thousand and eighty-seven (3,087) shares until May, 1883, after eight years had expired, why was it that F. A. Comly, President, on the 9th January, 1883, swore that the floating debt of the North Pennsylvania Railroad Company was twenty-nine thousand eight hundred and nineteen (29,819) dollars and eight (8) cents? At that date there was in the name of the city, on the North Pennsylvania Railroad Company's books, one hundred and fifty-four thousand three hundred and fifty (154,350) dollars in non-interest-bearing convertible scrip, which he omitted from the floating debt, where it belonged, as he well knew.

Here is proof conclusive that the statement of floating debt made in the report to the Secretary of Internal Affairs for the year ending October 31, 1882, was not complete, and consequently not true.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS S. FERNON,

Ex-President North Pennsylvania R.R. Co.

APPENDIX No. 118.

Philadelphia, May 24, 1883.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—My attention having been called to the payment by the Receiver of Taxes and the Collector of Delinquent Taxes, of taxes twice paid, over-paid, or paid in error, out of funds yet in their hands, not returned to the City Treasurer, inquiry was made by me of Mr. Hunter and Mr. Tener, wherein they found authority for such payments so made. In the case of State and city taxes that may have been paid to and collected by the Receiver of Taxes on duplicate and erroneous assessments, the Act of March 30, 1859, section 1 (West's Digest, 448, section 60), seems to afford ample authority for the refunding or repayment of any sums so erroneously paid, allowance of such errors having been first made and furnished by the Board of Revision, on application of the taxpayer to them for relief, and credit therefor afterwards given on the triplicate of taxes in this department. But when the payments have been made in error by the tax-payer, either through the fault of himself, his agent, or the clerk of the Receiver of Taxes, or the clerk or the collector of the Collector of Delinquent Taxes, and not through the fault of the department of the revision or the assessment of taxes, both Mr. Hunter and Mr. Tener agree with me, after consideration, in the conclusion reached, that there is no warrant for the repayment or refunding of taxes in such cases erroneously paid; and that the system hitherto followed by them and their predecessors in office, of making allowances in such cases claimed, is liable to grave abuse.

In the Water Department, water-rents over-paid, twice paid, or paid in error, are repaid (as well as pipe-laying bills) by a direct appropriation to that department for that purpose, and the total amount of the aggregate of such payments, and warrants against that appropriation are then drawn by the Chief Engineer in favor of the persons named in a schedule filed with the City Controller, which had already received the approval of the Committee on Water, after an investigation of each particular case; and that system in that department has for several years worked harmoniously and satisfactorily, and with perfect security to the city.

I would respectfully suggest to your honorable bodies that a like system for the repayment or refunding of money due by the city on account of taxes in like manner erroneously paid, but not through any mistake in the assessment of the properties out of which the taxes were to be collected, might, with propriety and advantage, be provided for, and followed by the Department of Taxes, current or delinquent. The claims of tax-payers for any allowances of the kind indicated, as not by law or ordinance heretofore authorized, could be submitted by the heads of the several departments of taxes respectively to the Finance Committee of Councils, and, upon inquiry, be by that committee duly approved, and a schedule of such allowances to be made, and then filed with this department. After an appropriation made by Councils to meet the aggregate amount of the allowances so claimed and approved, warrants for the same could then be drawn in favor of the persons and for the respective amounts named in such schedule; thus all chance of loss, and all opportunity for misappropriation of money belonging to the city would be certainly avoided so far as might be anticipated from the lack of system indicated in this communication, as worthy of your consideration.

With great respect,

Your obedient servant,

S. DAVIS PAGE, City Controller.

DEPARTMENT OF CITY CONTROLLER.

Philadelphia, May 23, 1883.

To the Members of Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—John Huggard, Esq., President of the Board of Guardians of the Poor, lately placed in my hands some account books obtained by him from J. B. Bunting, for many years House Agent of said Board. Through the courtesy so extended I have been enabled to discover a defalcation on the part of Major Ellis P. Phipps, the late Superintendent of the Blockley Almshouse, to the extent of eight thousand five hundred and forty-eight (8,548) dollars and ten (10) cents, in the matter of the board of patients, resident and non-resident in this county, paid by the said Bunting to the said Phipps, in the years 1874—1880 inclusive, an annual average deficit of over one thousand three hundred and fifteen (1,315) dollars, as appears from the books.

By receipts at various dates from Jan. 13, 1874, to April 26, 1880, for sundry sums of money, under the hand of Ellis P. Phipps, he acknowledges to have received from J. B. Bunting, House Agent, for the board of residents or non-residents, the total amount of thirty-nine thousand four hundred and seventy-nine (39,479) dollars and twenty-one (21) cents.

By sundry audits of "House Receipts" made by this Department, it appears that the said Ellis P. Phipps paid to the Treasurers of the Board of Guardians in the years 1874—1880, both inclusive, on account of "the Board of Patients," the total sum of thirty thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (30,931) dollars and eleven (11) cents, leaving a balance of eight thousand five hundred and forty-eight (8,548) dollars and ten (10) cents unaccounted for by the said Ellis P. Phipps, as Superintendent of the Almshouse, upon that one Item of House Receipts.

The annual payments in each case were:

APPENDIX No. 121.

Philadelphia, May 24, 1883.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The Committee on Finance respectfully report that they have considered a petition of D. M. Pfautz, contractor for the improvement of Washington Square, requesting Councils to take such action as will release his securities, and enable payment to be made to the purchaser of the railing and workmen, and, for the reasons contained in the report of the sub-committee, hereto appended, report the same back, with a negative recommendation, and request the passage of the annexed resolution.

Henry Clay (Ch'n), Thos. Green, W. Elwood Rowan, Jas. R. Gates, George R. Snowden, Edward Matthews, J. Dallas Hall, John Bardsley, Chas. Roberts, David Wallace, Jno. Taylor, John H. Graham, A. Haller Gross, A. J. Maloney, (for report), S. R. Marshall.

Philadelphia, May 21, 1883.

TO HENRY CLAY, ESQ., Chairman,

And the Members of the Committee on Finance.

GENTLEMEN:—The sub-committee, to whom the petition of D. M. Pfantz was referred, make the following report:

The facts set forth are, in the main, correct, and may be briefly stated to be that D. M. Pfantz was the only bidder for the contract for the improvement of Washington Square, the contract price being thirteen thousand seven hundred (13,700) dollars, and the old materials. His sureties were Jacob J. Gumpfer, Wm. M. Maull and George F. Fields, who, strangers to him, became his bondsmen on the representation of his counsel that the contract would be complied with. Owing, however, to difficulties entirely unexpected and unforeseen, the failure of people to supply him with the necessary flagging, the disinclination of any one to deal with him, except on the most stringent terms, his error in calculations, and the advance in the price of materials, he found himself utterly unable to carry out his contract, and the work which he failed to complete was finished by the city. Nor need we be astonished at his failure, when we compare his bid with the original estimate of Mr. Shedaker, the District Surveyor, who said that the work could not be performed for less than twenty-nine thousand and forty-five (29,045) dollars. By reference to the statement furnished by the Commissioner of Markets and City Property, see Exhibits, hereunto annexed, marked "A" and "B," respectively, it will be perceived that the city has lost, on this contract, the sum of twelve thousand nine hundred and four (12,904) dollars and forty-one (41) cents, which, with the interest, four hundred and thirty-six (436) dollars and seventy-nine (79) cents, amounts to thirteen thousand three hundred and forty-one (13,341) dollars and twenty cents.

There is nothing to show that the work done by Pfantz was inferior in quality. On the contrary, it may be admitted that it was well done. The petition closes with the prayer that the sureties be released, and that payment be made to the purchaser of the railing, and the workmen. If the allegation of the petition is correct, that the sureties are men advanced in years, comparatively poor, and that "the enforcement of the terms of the obligation would sweep away the hard earnings of their lives," it is unquestionably a hardship, but it must be regarded as one of the hazards and risks of those who make themselves responsible for the faithful performance of the acts of another. It is all the greater that it should fall upon men who were strangers, and who said they expected to derive no advantage from the contract, but it seems to us to be without remedy. Whilst sympathizing with them in their unfortunate predicament, we do not feel that, under the circumstances, we should be properly fulfilling our duty towards the city if we recommended their release. Members of Councils, clothed with the power and duty of caring for the interests of the city, raising the sums necessary for the carrying on of her different functions of municipal government, regulating the expenditure of her finances, occupy the same position towards her that a trustee holds towards a cestui que trust, and it seems to us that to recommend the release of these sureties, and thus to allow the city to lose thirteen thousand three hundred and forty-one (13,341) dollars and twenty (20) cents, which she has been obliged to pay, would be an admission that we were derelict in the trust reposed in us. Such an exhibition of sympathy on the part of any trustee, towards one who had occasioned a loss to the estate in any matter similar to the case now under consideration, would be promptly rewarded by his being at once surcharged, by the proper tribunal, with the amount so lost, paid or released. It is well to be just before one is generous, and, better still, to be generous with one's own money than with the money of the city. For these reasons, therefore, we are of the opinion that the petition should be reported to Councils with a negative recommendation.

GENTLEMEN:—The Committee on Finance respectfully report that they have considered a petition of the German Hospital, and citizens interested in that institution, requesting a grant of land adjoining the hospital, and for the reasons contained in the report of the Sub-Committee, hereto appended, submit the annexed ordinance to authorize the sale of said ground, and recommend its passage.

Philadelphia, May 21, 1883.

To the Committee on Finance.

GENTLEMEN:—The Sub-Committee, to which was referred the petition of the German Hospital, and of citizens interested in that institution, asking the city to make it a grant of land adjoining the hospital, respectfully report, that upon consultation with the City Solicitor, it was ascertained that the power of the city to make a grant for such a purpose was limited to the Almshouse property, in West Philadelphia, and was there exercised for the benefit of the University Hospital. The Managers of the German Hospital desire to largely increase its usefulness, and to build a Home for old men and women, and to add liberal endowments. At the request, therefore, of the hospital, it is recommended that the city offer the property at public sale, with such provisions as will secure the hospital from being crippled in its growing usefulness, by guarding the property from any use detrimental to the German Hospital and other public institutions in the vicinity. The Sub-Committee therefore report the accompanying ordinance to the Committee, and ask that it be favorably reported to Councils for their action.

Sub-Committee.

Chas. H. Banes, John Bardsley, Wm. Henry Lex.

vested in the purchaser shall be free and clear of all incumbrances, and a good and marketable title; and that the sale of said lot shall first be approved by Councils, and that possession thereof shall not be given until reasonable notice shall have been given to the present occupants thereof to vacate the same.

RESOLUTION

Of request to the Senate and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania.

WHEREAS, The Senate bill No. 98, recently considered by the House of Representatives, tends to so alter the government of this city as to diminish the right of the people to self government, by placing much of the management of the city's affairs in the hands of one man, the Mayor, who will be beyond the immediate reach of the people after his election.

AND WHEREAS, The passage of said act will be against the best interests of the people in taking from them the power to remedy evils which would naturally arise from the autocratic power conferred under this act.

AND WHEREAS, The principles of said measure contravene

the just ideas of a genuine republican form of government, and are especially obnoxious to the people of Philadelphia, whom we represent.

Therefore be it Resolved by the Common Council of the City of Philadelphia, That the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania be, and they are, hereby respectfully and earnestly requested not to enact the said bill, or any similar measure which may tend to diminish the right of self government in the people.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to use every effort to introduce all possible reforms in the administration of the government of this city, believing that course to be in accordance with the wishes of the people of Philadelphia.

It is to be observed that it has not been the custom of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to collect any part of the revenue of the city, and that the Treasurer of the city alone, has always done so; the action of the Commissioners alone having been confined to giving authority to collect and convert only, when dividends have been made in scrip and stock.

Respectfully submitted,

APPENDIX No. 142.

Philadelphia, June 7, 1883.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—In view of your proposed adjournment for the summer, and the necessity of immediately considering the appropriation for the various departments upon your re-assembling in September, I feel it my duty, at this time, to call your attention to an improvement in the management of the business of the city, that would, in my judgment, effect a saving in the expenses of the departments of many thousands of dollars, and thus enable you to reduce the tax rate demanded by the ordinary departmental estimates, without in any way preventing your supplying all the means that the necessities of the public may demand. To many of the members of your Honorable Bodies it is well known, that, when considering the appropriation for the current year, the Finance Committee and Councils were finally, at the close of 1882, induced by me to make the experiment of consolidating, in the hands of the County Commissioners, the purchase of the various supplies that might be required in the year by the several County officers, under the reasoning adopted by the Court of Common Pleas No. 4, in the case of Wright vs. the City (reported in Weekly Notes of Cases, Vol. 5). Unfortunately for the value of the experiment; as in nearly all of these departments proposals had been asked and bids had been accepted, in each case with the approval of the Finance Committee, before the County Commissioners could act under their appropriation, it was deemed desirable not to re-advertise for other proposals, and perhaps thus delay the public business, while the new system was in process of adjustment, but to allow the Commissioners to assume the contracts involved in the acceptance by the departments, with the approval of the Finance Committee, of the various proposals already made. The assumed uncertainty of the law regulating the selection of the head of this department, has also increased the difficulties of the experiment very greatly. Though the system was applied under the law, to the County Departments, only enough has been seen of it, however, to justify the expectation that the County Commissioners can properly attend to this business, and that in the hands of the present officials, or those likely to be chosen, if these new responsibilities were to remain with them, the public interest would be safe. The County Departments or Officers included in the experiment form only a small part, and not the most expensive, of the thirty odd departments, whose expenses are borne by the tax payers of the city. The departments of the municipality proper, purchase by far the largest quantity of supplies of various sorts. The system proposed could be readily extended to all the departments, whether county or city, and the tax payers would not then, through one of their agents, pay one price for an article while another agent might be paying twice or three times that price for the same article. Of course the patronage and influence of some of the departments might in this way be curtailed, and there might not be quite so much advertising for the newspaper, but money would be saved to the tax payers and a better standard for supplies, as a rule maintained, any difficulty arising from the greater acquaintance of the particular department with its special needs, could be readily overcome by consultation between the purchasing agent, the County Commissioners, and the Heads of such Departments, and the specifications to be adopted could be thus easily determined upon by both; while, as to those articles in common use in several or many of the departments a standard could be chosen to which the wants of each could be adjusted, as is the rule in the State Government, so I have been informed. The details of the system could be carefully prescribed by ordinance and the specifications could be approved by Councils or its Committees. I have had prepared elaborate tables from the schedules of bids furnished this department, of the awards as made in each Department of the City and County, and the variance in prices to be observed is often so great as to justify any effort to bring them all under some rational system. The enormous quantities of some of the articles required would make the saving of a few cents in each a great economy, while arrangements could be made, and systems selected, for the procurement of most of these supplies at first hands at greatly reduced rates. The corporation of Philadelphia, with its nine or ten thousand employees, and its departmental expenditure of eight or nine millions of dollars, should make the effort demanded by the people and the time, and conduct its business, as far as possible, upon a business basis; and in nothing has its business management been more unlike that of other large corporations, employing nearly as many people, and expending often much more money, than in this one thing of the purchase of supplies. Selecting from the comparative tables of schedules prepared in this department, which I respectfully submit herewith for your further consideration, sundry articles, in common use among many of these departments; I beg to call your attention to the variance in prices paid for them, so that your Honorable Bodies may see how much of the money, through the power by law entrusted to you, obtained from the tax-payers, has been unnecessarily wasted. Taking out of 63 articles of stationery, I notice that, for

Your Honorable bodies will thus perceive that while the awards were made to the lowest bidder in every case, yet as each department was acting independently of the other, the tax payers in many instances do not secure the benefit of the purchase of the articles at the lowest price. Purchases made through one purchasing agent, after due publication of the wants of the corporation, would appear a probable remedy for the evils that flourish so abundantly.

With great respect,

Your obedient servant,

S. DAVIS PAGE,

APPENDIX No. 143.

Philadelphia, June 7, 1883.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have awarded to Jas. F. Kennedy the contract for the construction of Sections 1 and 2 of the intercepting sewer, for the following prices, viz:

For Section 1, forty-two (42) dollars and eighty-five (85) cents per linear foot, (648 feet), total amount not to exceed twenty-seven thousand seven hundred and forty-eight (27,748) dollars.

For Section 2, fifteen (15) dollars and ninety (90) cents per linear foot, (1,700 feet), total amount not to exceed twenty-seven thousand (27,000) dollars.

The above work to be done under ordinance, March 30, 1883, and refer the matter to your Honorable Bodies for action.

Yours truly,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

---

APPENDIX No. 144.

Philadelphia, June 7, 1883.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—By resolution of the Committee on Highways, the Chief Commissioner of Highways respectfully calls attention to the fact that from contracts already entered into, and ordinances passed by your Honorable Bodies ordering further work, the appropriations for paving intersections of streets (Item 2), and for grading streets and roads (Item 6), are exhausted.

Respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

APPENDIX No. 145.

Philadelphia, June 7, 1883.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—In most of the wards of the city, the funds available for repairs to paved streets will be exhausted within the next thirty days; in some the limit is already reached, and not more than one-fifth of the repairs needed have been completed.

It is of the utmost importance that these repairs be continued through the summer, and that an appropriation of two hundred thousand (200,000) dollars be made therefor. An expenditure of that amount at this time for repairs to paved streets would undoubtedly better serve all sections of the city, both for sanitary and commercial purposes, than a like expenditure in any other direction. The Chief Commissioner of Highways respectfully suggests using that portion which cannot be expended this year of the appropriation for Market Street Bridge.

Very respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

APPENDIX No. 146.

Philadelphia, June 7, 1883.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The Chief Commissioner of Highways respectfully asks a further appropriation of three thousand (3,000) dollars to Item 11, for "Incidentals and office and yard expenses," as the present appropriation to that item is entirely exhausted.

Expenditures last year under this item amounted to eight thousand four hundred and eighty-six (8,486) dollars and ninety-one (91) cents: seven hundred and thirty-six (736) dollars and ninety-one (91) cents of this amount had to be paid out of the two thousand (2,000) dollars, appropriation for this year, consequently the total available funds for this year's expenditure was but twelve hundred and sixty-three (1,263) dollars, against nearly eight thousand five hundred (8,500) dollars, expended last year.

Respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

APPENDIX No. 179.

Philadelphia, June 7, 1883.

To the Presidents and Members of Select and
Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN :—The Committee on Gas Works, to whom was referred the resolution of April 5, 1883 (see Appendix of Common Council No. 6, April 2, 1883), to inquire into the furnishing of supplies by Albert C. Roberts, to the Board of Gas Trustees, respectfully report that they have held several meetings, and examined several witnesses, a synopsis of whose testimony is hereto appended.

Your Committee find the following facts:—Goods, consisting chiefly of liquors and cigars, and some groceries, were delivered to the Trustees of the Gas Works by Albert C. Roberts, from his store at Eleventh and Vine streets, for which he was paid in checks, drawn by the Cashier of the Gas Trust, to John Orie or bearer; the amount of these checks exceeded in some years the sum of eight thousand (8000) dollars; the checks were receipted for in the name of John Orie, by Mr. Roberts, on the stub of the check book; this practice continued from 1876 to the end of 1880; the last receipt was signed by Mr. Roberts on January 15, 1881, five days before he was elected by Select Council to the office of Gas Trustee, for the term he is now filling ; it did not appear that any of the goods furnished by Mr. Roberts went anywhere else than to the office on Seventh street, to Point Breeze Works, and to the Spring Garden office, nor that any of the trustees or employees participated in the consumption of said supplies, except as they were consumed at these places.

The evidence was submitted to the City Soliciter, and his opinion, in response to the request of the Committee, was given in regard to the right of Councils to remove Mr. Roberts ; his opinion, which is annexed hereto, was, that Councils had no right to remove Mr. Roberts.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution.

RESOLUTION

Relative to the resignation of Albert C. Roberts, a Trustee of the Philadelphia Gas Works.

Resolved, by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, That Albert C. Roberts be, and he is, hereby requested to resign his office as Gas Trustee.

May 14, 1883.

A. C. Roberts made the following statement :

GENTLEMEN:—Out of respect to your Honorable Body, and in obedience to your subpoena, I appear before you and respectfully ask to be excused from testifying.

First. Because the subject matter of your inquiry occurred prior to my last election to the trust, and the facts were all well known to you at that time.

Second. Because the same matter is now the subject of judicial investigation in the Court of Common Pleas No. 1, and I am advised it will be unfair to me, to ask me to disclose my defence in advance.

Samuel M. White, sworn:—I am Cashier of the Gas Trust; goods were furnished by Mr. Roberts, from the store, Eleventh and Vine streets, in the name of John Orie, to the Gas Trust; no goods have been furnished since December, 1880: the last bill, for four hundred and forty-five (445) dollars, was paid by a check dated January 15, 1881; I do not know what the aggregate was: the goods consisted of segars, dried beef, coffee, sugar, etc.; the check was drawn to John Orie or bearer; the check was handed to Mr. Roberts, and he receipted for Orie; Mr. Bumm, a member of the Finance Committee, approved the bills by signing his name: all the bills cannot be found; it was usual for the Finance Committee to approve the bills: the orders were sent to Eleventh and Vine streets by myself. The goods came in the name of John Orie; in all cases Mr. Roberts receipted and signed the name of John Orie; the bills were paid at the Seventh street office; there was nothing that indicated that he was the agent of Orie; I do not know why he signed the name of Orie; the supplies were participated in by the trustees and clerks; they were furnished by order of the trustees; I think it was by an order of one of the Committee: the clerks participated to prevent them from going out to the restaurants; It was participated in by the trustees whenever they met; it had been going on from 1876 to 1880; it was discontinued the last of December, 1880; I do not know, of my own knowledge, why it was discontinued; I have no knowledge of Mr. Roberts serving the trust with supplies prior to his becoming a member of the trust: I don't know whether Mr. Orie had an interest in Mr. Roberts' business; the Finance Committee is composed of six: Mr. Bumm approved the bills, and no other: Mr. Bumm did not specially sign the bills, but in this case always; I paid the bills when authorized; four constitute a quorum: I never understood it required a quorum to sign the bills: as a general thing, two names were signed to the bills; I don't know whether supplies were delivered elsewhere; I know of no exception, I have no doubt all the trustees participated; it was of common notoriety where the supplies came from; they had very seldom champagne; bought whisky by the gallon, I don't recollect how many gallons; I don't know that Mr. Roberts was violating the law in furnishing supplies; I am sure no supplies were furnished after January, 1881, and no bills paid after January 15, 1881; the bills of 1876 we have; we have a statement of the others in the stubs of the book; Mr. Noble and myself ordered the supplies: ordered two, three, or five gallons at a time, I don't recollect of ordering more than five gallons at a time; I don't know where the bills of 1877, 1878 and 1879 are; I don't know who is the custodian of the bills; I don't know whether Mr. Orie is a clerk in the store; the bills were filed by the book-keeper, afterwards boxed up and sent up into the garret; I signed the stub once for Mr. Orie, as he neglected to sign it; I saw Mr. Orie in the store, in 1880, attending to the business; my impression is that he is engaged there at present; I saw him six months ago; I don't know that goods were paid for and not delivered; I have examined some of the goods; It was customary to order of John Orie; I have no recollection how it commenced; I first heard of him from seeing the bill; somebody told me to go there, but I don't recollect who it was; I don't recollect the first time I went to the store; the last time I went there, was to get Mr. Roberts to sign a check as trustee; I did not always order the goods; in the annual report I put them in as sundries—no itemized account; when read at Board, no inquiry as to the supplies: we sent messenger after the supplies; they were kept locked up in a closet; Mr. Noble had a key as well as myself; orders were sent in writing; sometimes may not have been in writing; I don't know whether there is a sign at Eleventh and Vine; I knew Mr. Orie to be a correct man, and I did not inquire in relation to it; bills came in by the month; as a rule the bills were approved by more than one member of the committee, but in this instance by one member; I had no understanding with Mr. Roberts; he never told me how the bills should be made out; I did not take the orders, they were sent by messengers; I don't recollect how I first got acquainted with Mr. Orie; I knew that the messenger went to Mr. Roberts' store, Eleventh and Vine streets; I did not pay Mr. Orie from any direction from Mr. Roberts.

May 21, 1883.

*John Orie, sworn:—*I am the superintendent of A. C. Roberts' grocery store, Eleventh and Vine streets, and have held the position since 1853; I live at 1323 Spring Garden street; I am not a partner, and have no interest, and no bills were made out in my name except for supplies furnished to the Gas Trust; the bills were made out in my name at the request of Mr. Roberts; the orders were sent to the store in my name; the bills were delivered monthly as far as my recollection goes : I did not receive any money for the supplies, nor do I know how the payments were made : the orders specified the articles wanted : Mr. White and Mr. Noble gave the orders : they were sent by messengers : the goods supplied were champagne, claret, cigars, whisky, coffee, sugar, tea, sardines, cheese, crackers, canned goods, pickles, and other articles ; I cannot remember whether all the goods were sent to the Seventh street office, but none of them, so far as I know, were sent to the private residences of the trustees ; the Gas Trust accounts do not appear on the books of the store, but were simply kept on slips, it being looked upon as a cash account : I believe the slips were destroyed ; the books of the store were not balanced, and an account of stock had not been taken for years ; I had access to the books, and know that this account was not kept on the books : I put these slips on file and Mr. Roberts transferred them to separate slips ; all the goods ordered, to my recollection, were forwarded to the office : I had no interest in Mr. Roberts' business, but was simply a manager ; I furnished the goods at his request ; I sent a case of champagne at a time ; three gallons of whisky ; I don't recollect over 4 gallons ; I cannot recollect the price of whisky or wines : there was no price on the order ; from two to three thousand cigars at a time ; they would last about thirty days ; I did not see the charge ; I did not keep the invoice book and do not know the charges : I never heard Mr. Roberts say what he charged ; Mr. Roberts did not send bills to anybody else in my name : he did not give a reason for using my name : I think the supplies would amount to about six hundred and eighty (680) dollars per month ; when he received cash he would count it with the cash sale of the day ; there was only a slip account, I think, the slips were destroyed ; I did not collect any of the bills ; I made memorandums on slips of paper, and handed them to him at the end of the day ; Mr. Roberts kept a day book, cash book, and ledger : Gas Office team carried the goods invariably ; there were different drivers : Archambault delivered goods, who was in our employ ; both James and Robert Archambault ; James Archambault is with Mr. Roberts : I was not at the Trust when the goods were delivered : the reason I think the goods were delivered is, that if they had not been, the Trust would have notified us of that fact ; the wagons looked like those they have their meters in ; they might have come to the store sometimes once or twice a day, or once a week ; Mr.

Nicholson would bring the order, and I think a man by the name of Carson, would drive the wagon; Archibald Fleming delivered most of the goods; he is still employed by the trust; Fleming and Carson, as I recollect, were the only persons who delivered goods to the Trust; I don't think it possible for the twelve members of the trust to have consumed all the supplies sent to the trust; I presume they kept open house; Members of the Gas Trust kept their individual accounts with us, and their accounts were kept the same as anybody else; I sold sugars and liquors, and they were charged to the parties who got them; George I. Young had an account, and he paid cash; I call a cash account such as can be collected at any time; I never got any money from him on account of the Gas Trust; the orders came signed by Mr. White and Mr. Noble, and sometimes in blank; Young, Stanton and McManes had accounts with us; when the driver took the goods he gave no receipt for the goods.

Thomas Noble, sworn:—I am Register of the Gas Trust; I have been there sixteen years and nine months; I have been twelve years registrar; when my attention was called, I would order the goods; I ordered the goods of John Orie because it had been the practice; I have no recollection of any trustee getting the goods; Mr. White had a key also; when an article got low I ordered; I sent the order by Mr. Nicholson; he is carpenter, and we make use of him for messenger; he receives a monthly salary; Mr. Nicholson would take any meter wagon; he had the privilege of taking the wagons; he might have taken Carson, or Mr. Fleming might have gone; I never ordered champagne; I ordered whisky; three gallons; I did not know the price, it was not my business to know; the goods were put away and consumed; the trustees and others consumed them; the trustees had keys to the sideboards, where the liquors were kept in decanters; all the goods I ordered were furnished to the trust; I saw that goods tallied with the order; we had a three gallon demijohn; I never ordered any cigars; I might have ordered goods two or three times a week; I never saw an itemized bill; the bills went before, the Finance Committee; I had access to all the goods except cigars; I filled the decanters several times a day; the largest item of goods that ever came were cigars; they must have been about ten (10) dollars per hundred; it was about three hundred (300) dollars per month, at that rate, for cigars; brandy and whisky, about one hundred (100) dollars per month; I did not furnish for the party that went to the convention in 1878; I don't know who gave the order for supper to Councils, at Point Breeze; the trust had two suppers per month; forty-five (45) dollars each; Stevens furnished them; I ordered him to furnish them; Proskauer furnished them when I came there; it was merely customary; the bills I saw were bills of 1876; I never saw an itemized bill; the bills amounted to about seven hundred (700) dollars per month; the custom was kept up twelve years; I understood the black hats were at Mr. Stevens' in 1878; I never saw a bill for that supper; the black hats had a caucus there.

James Archambault, sworn:—I reside at 1127 Vine street; I am employed by Mr. Roberts; I went there in July, 1880; I haul and deliver goods; I never delivered goods to the Gas Works and Gas Office; I delivered goods to Mr. Bumm, as a regular customer; I don't know what the goods were; I delivered goods to M. Hall Stanton, S. S. Kelly, James McManes, Thomas J. Smith and William R. Leeds; I never delivered any to Lane, Work or William Smith; they were regular customers; I delivered to them the same as the other regular customers; I am still with Mr. Roberts; I drive the wagon; I haul; I haul goods from the wholesale places on Front street; I never started out for the Gas Office, and delivered to private individuals; nobody has spoken to me about how I was to testify; I told Mr. Roberts I was going down to testify; I don't recollect what he said; it was nothing; he did not ask me what I knew; I did not know what I was subpoenaed for; I knew it was about the Gas Trust.

May 28, 1883.

John B. Carson, sworn:—I reside 1124 Sheaff street; I drove the wagon for the Philadelphia Gas Works from 10 to 13 years; I brought stuff from Roberts' to Gas Office; I went with Mr. Nicholson to the store, Eleventh and Vine streets; he would say come and go to Eleventh and Vine streets; I watched my horse and wagon while there; sometimes it was a basket and demijohn; the goods were put in a basket; boxes were put in; I went two, three, or four times a week; I hauled them to the Seventh street Gas Office; they never went anywhere else; I never hauled them from the Gas Office to any other place; I never took them anywhere else, or to the houses of the Gas Trustees; I did not know any body that did; I never took anything from the grocery store to any of the Gas Trustees' houses; I use my wagon every day; nobody else drove it; I don't know if others took the goods in that way; we have eight or ten wagons; the drivers are Charles Vandusen, Charles Stevenson, David Fields, Archambault, and Fleming; I don't know that any of them carried supplies from Mr. Roberts' store to Gas Office.

Wm. Nicholson, sworn:—I reside 1816 Catharine street; I do the bank running, and jobbing carpentering, at the Gas Office; I have been there since 1854; I went with the wagon after receiving an order from Mr. Noble or Mr. White; the order that Mr. Noble gave me was sealed; he told me to go to Mr. Roberts' store; I had to get a wagon, and generally took Carson, because his wagon was the cleanest; I sat there and waited for the order to be put up, and then came down to the Gas Office; I never delivered goods from the Gas Office to any other persons; I went two or three times a week; I never took any goods from the office to Thirteenth and Spring Garden streets, and I don't know of any other person who did; I am positive of it; I never heard that goods were so taken; I carried them up stairs and laid them on the table, and Mr. Noble and Mr. White put them away; they had keys; it took place in 1876, 1877, 1878, 1879, and 1880; when they began to sit with open doors, the supplies stopped; I remember when Mr. Young succeeded Mr. Graeff; I never knew goods to be carried from the Seventh street office to the houses of the Gas Trustees; I have been inside the office four or five years; I know nothing about it before that time.

Archibald Fleming, sworn:—I reside at 2312 Ashburton street; I am driver of wagon at Gas Works since 1859; I haul fittings and lamps, to Market street, to Point Breeze, and Manayunk; I went to Mr. Roberts', Eleventh and Vine; it is a good while ago; I have not since 1880; I would get a dispatch sometimes from Mr. Noble, Mr. White and Mr. Logue; Mr. Nicholson told me to go, and he went with me; I went from the stables and got the goods, and took them to the office; the goods were put in baskets and boxes; I never took them from the Gas Office to any other place; I never delivered any of them to Thirteenth and Spring Garden streets, or to the Pennsylvania Railroad office; I am positive I never delivered any goods to any of the Trustees; I went when I was sent after; it may have been two, three, four, or five times a week; I don't remember the last time I hauled; I never tasted any of the things; no other drivers of meter wagons were sent there, that I knew of; I don't know how many they had to drive wagons; I know Fleming, John Gamble; once I took goods to Point Breeze, I think it was in 1876; they were celebrating the centennial; I did not hear of a centennial wagon, they have not had wagons fitted up for centennial purposes since I have been about.

June 2, 1882.

George G. Schoch, sworn:—I reside at the northwest corner of Eleventh and Wallace streets: I am Registrar of the Spring Garden Gas Works; I have been registrar since 1866; there was not one cent's worth of groceries, liquors, or refreshments, furnished to the Spring Garden Gas Office, except in the year 1873; an order was issued that the clerks should not leave the office to go to dinner; an order was made out to A. C. Roberts, for groceries; all I saw was the order drawn on Mr. Roberts; the order was signed by Charles E. Graeff: it was for 2 pounds of coffee and 5 pounds of sugar; December, 1873, it was done away with; it continued about six months; I am sure it was in 1873; it was not 1877 and 1878; Mr. Young succeeded Mr. Graeff as trustee; it was done under Mr. Graeff's administration; it was done under a committee that had charge of our office; the supplies cost sixty cents for sugar, and seventy cents for coffee, one dollar and thirty cents per week; Mr. Graeff died in 1873; candles were obtained for the meter inspectors; the clerks brought their meals, and the coffee and sugar was furnished to them in the office; I am positive nothing else was furnished; I do not know anything about a centennial carriage.

Philadelphia, June, 1882.

S. S. HOLLINGSWORTH, Esq.,

Chairman Committee on Gas.

MY DEAR SIR:—In reply to your communication as to whether Councils have the power to remove Gas Trustee Roberts, in view of the facts appearing in the testimony taken before the committee, I have to say as follows:

Councils have no power to remove a Gas Trustee—if he misbehaves, the city may, “like other cestuis que trust, apply to the courts for redress.” Idle Western Saving Fund Society vs. the City, 7 Cases, 184.

A serious difficulty lies in this, that the objectionable acts occurred prior to the term which he is now serving.

The city’s case against the Trustee, now pending, will present to the court all the facts which were obtained by the committee.

Another suit for this specific dereliction is inadvisable.

Yours very truly,

WM. NELSON WEST,

City Solicitor.

Philadelphia, May 19, 1883.

To the President and Board of Trustees of the Philadelphia Gas Works.

GENTLEMEN:—We would respectfully call the attention of the Trust to a piece of our property, known as the “Schissler” property, located right in the midst of the Gas Trust property at Point Breeze, containing about twelve (12) acres, which we propose exchanging for strips of Gas Trust property, as follows: all the narrow strip lying south of Passyunk avenue, adjoining our works, containing about five (5) acres; also, the small point of land directly east of the wharf at our Philadelphia refinery, that is entirely covered with water at high tide, containing about one (1) rood and seventeen (17) perches; also, strip of property at the rear of our Philadelphia refinery, now occupied by our tracks under lease; and the strip of Trust property lying north of said lease, reaching from our line to Thirty-first street,—thus including property leased, and strip of property north of same.

We need not go into the advantages of such an exchange to both parties. An examination of the accompanying chart of the properties, we think, will show that the exchange will be mutually beneficial.

APPENDIX No. 220.

Philadelphia, June 25, 1883.

To the Committee on Highways.

GENTLEMEN:—By Ordinance of Councils, July 7, 1857, it is specified that it shall be the duty of the Passenger Railway Companies, when ordered so to do, by the Chief Commissioner of Highways, to repair, pave or repave the highways occupied by them, “and if they refuse or neglect to do so for ten days from date of such notice, then, and in that case, the Councils may forbid the running of any car or cars upon said road, until the same is fully complied with.”

With reference to the above subject I would therefore say, that the Railway Companies are prompt and careful to repair between their tracks, so that while there may be portions of the Highways between their tracks and the curb, which are badly in need of repair, it does not facilitate the Department in doing it, by stopping the running of the cars, which in any event can only be done as above quoted, by a Joint Resolution of Councils. If therefore it be deemed expedient, that such a course should be adopted, I would suggest that such a resolution be offered in Councils.

Very respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

APPENDIX No. 233.

DEPARTMENT OF CITY CONTROLLER.

Philadelphia September 1, 1883.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—As required by law, and in accordance with usage, I herewith furnish a detailed statement of the estimated receipts, expenditures, and liabilities of every kind for the next fiscal year, from January 1, 1884, and for the final months of the current year, from August 1, 1883; and for the convenience of Councils, I have added the customary calculations for the tax rate, made as directed by the first section of the Act of Assembly, approved June 11, 1879.

The aggregate demands of the various Departments of the City, for the year 1884, amount to $13,219,755.66, exclusive of "the lawful obligations due by the City" during that year, which must also be provided for by appropriations, to the extent of $5,011,079.22. These estimated requirements of the Departments are $2,937,448.62 in excess of those presented for the year 1883, and $480,234.87 beyond the limit of the "expenses of municipal government authorized by Councils" in that year, by the adoption of the tax rate of $1.85 upon the valuation of taxable property then made by the Board of Revision of Taxes, as required by law. By special appropriations from "the surplus" of 1882, and unexpended balances of loans, as well as by the non-merger of certain appropriations at the close of 1882, the Departments of the City, however, have in the current year been credited with amounts aggregating within $64,101.11 of the total sum by them demanded for 1883, and $1,878,585.08 more than the limit of expenses fixed under the provisions of the Act of June 11, 1879, by the tax rate of $1.85. The possibility of such large appropriations arose from the surplus of the income of 1880, 1881, and 1882, beyond the limit of the tax rate in those years; but it can hardly be expected that any such surplus (so called) can always be depended upon in making our estimates of receipts, in view of the fact that, for the five years ending 1882, "the average income from sources other than current tax moneys" is $747,705.76 beyond the estimated income from the same sources for the year 1884: and it would be ground for congratulation, if, at the end of the current year such surplus should be found to amount to one-half of the $372,425.22 discovered at the end of 1882, though it is impossible, at this time, to form any idea of what it may be.

Upon the valuation of taxable property returned by the Board of Revision of Taxes for the year 1884, amounting to $583,612,683, as against $571,483,255 for 1883, a tax rate of $2.75 (and sub-divisions) will produce for "the expenses of the municipal government that may be authorized by Councils" all that the Departments in their estimates have demanded. A tax rate of $2 on the hundred dollars of valuation, will yield $1,273,175.74 more than the limit of expenses authorized by the tax rate for the current year. A tax rate of $1.95 will give $1,030,142.86 more than the limit of 1883: one of $1.90 will give $786,999.98 more than that of 1883; one of 1.85 will give $544,077.10 more than the like rate is calculated to do in the current year; while a tax rate of $1.80 on the valuation for 1884—$12,129,428 higher than for 1883—will produce $301,044.22 more than did $1.85 on the lower valuation for the current year, as the lawful limit of the expenses of municipal government for the next fiscal year.

I beg to call the attention of your Honorable Bodies to the fact that in current year there will be a decrease of the Funded Debt of the City, by the payment of City Loan to the amount of $1,069,525, and that the sum to be appropriated for the payment of the "lawful obligations of the City" in the year 1884, will be $113,374.10 less than in the year 1883, with the assurance that in each succeeding year there will be released from tax levy a greater proportion for general purposes of the municipality, by the pro rata diminution of the interest charges and Sinking Fund requirements consequent upon the reduction of the debt by the operation of the Sinking Fund and the serial maturity of the loan authorized by Act of June 11, 1879. In this connection, I may be pardoned for contrasting the financial condition of the City as shown in the statement laid before you with that existing at the end of the year 1877. The Funded Debt of the City on the 1st of January 1878, was $61,721,541.70, with outstanding warrants to the amount of $11,893,810.09, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, and remaining unpaid at the pleasure or convenience of the City Treasurer. At that date the total debt of the City was $73,615,351.79, with only $20,158,876.83 of marketable securities in the Sinking Fund; while on August 1, 1883, the Funded Debt was $66,779,216.24, and there were in the Sinking Fund to meet it, $24,264,884.41 of most valuable securities at par values, to say nothing of the property owned by the City, and the speedily approaching transfer to the City of the plant and funds of the Gas Trust; showing an actual reduction in the liabilities of the City, at par valuations, in the five and a half years, of $10,942,143.13. City warrants are no longer hawked about the streets, at a discount more or less regulated by the relations between the purchaser and the City Controller or City Treasurer, but are cashed immediately upon presentation. The tax rate for the year 1877 had been $2.25 on a valuation of $603,065.532, while that for the current year is only $1.85 on a valuation $31,582.277 less.

These gratifying results have been brought about by the maturing, conscientious labors of Councils, the operation of the Act of June 11, 1879, limiting expenditures, an increasing sense of official responsibility, and the awakened interest of the people in city affairs, demanding strict accountability in public place. As a rule, a greater intelligence in administration is seen on all sides, and the business of the City is each year being brought more and more upon a business basis, and under business principles.

The demands of the two Departments charged with the care of the water supply, the highways, bridges and sewers, for the year 1884, are based upon the needs of the City in these several particulars: and the unthinking, the prejudiced, or the unscrupulous observer, is apt to complain of the retrenchment and economy that has prevented larger outlay by those Departments, forgetful, ignorant, or oblivious of the years of profligate waste and reckless extravagance which made these reforms necessary.

Had the like condition of the public mind, and the official conscience, and the same executive intelligence, been seen in those days as at the present, new streets would have been paved with better material by the property owners, and old streets would have been repaired with better method by the passenger railway holders, bridges meant for ages to endure would not present nor be likely to present themselves as the crumbling ruins of some distant time, distribution pipes of smallest diameter would at least have had capacity for holding something other than solid rust, and permanent improvements would have been permanent in something other than the need of repair, even though the temporary needs of party followers may have been neglected. The struggle on behalf of the taxpayer has been long and hard, and it behooves those to-day charged with their interests to be most careful to secure for them an economical and intelligent administration: and any wide departure from the paths Councils have been so long pursuing should only be made after careful consideration and anxious investigation. If permanent improvements be necessary, and it seems from the communication of the Chief Engineer of the Water Department herewith submitted that many of those by him suggested are imperative, care should be taken that no more should be undertaken and provided for than can be advantageously carried on during the year. The general needs of the whole community should be considered in preference to the demands of particular localities, and wherever a smaller appropriation and a less costly improvement might accomplish the same immediate relief, the money should be saved for something more pressing, and the expensive plan should be laid aside for the less pretentious but more speedily procured substitute. The project of a stone bridge over the Schuylkill River at Market Street, of an estimated cost of one and a third million, and requiring years in construction, should, in my humble judgment, be reconsidered, and, if a steel bridge at one-fourth the cost would in the opinion of the ablest engineers answer every requirement of the time and place for half a century, the difference in the expenditure proposed, about one million of dollars, should be diverted where it can be vastly more advantageously used, in making our streets and sewers a little less the subjects of ridicule, reproach, and annoyance, and the cause of danger to life, limb, and health of ourselves and families, and in meeting the necessities of the Water Department.

Your Honorable Bodies will, of course, give both the demands and needs of all the Departments, and the adjustment of the tax rate to meet them, the grave attention these matters require. The power, as well as the responsibility, is with you. It should be remembered that in many cases the increased assessment of real estate is hardly warranted by any increased returns from such property, and the maintenance of the present tax rate even would, in such cases, very much increase the burthen of the tax payer. There is a natural temptation to avail ourselves of the honest and intelligent expenditure now possible, of the money that must eventually be appropriated: but it is unjust to the unfortunate tax payer that he should be more heavily laden than he can bear. Many of the improvements projected and provided for, both in the Highway and Water Departments, at the beginning of the current year, have not yet been commenced. It is for you to determine how many more they can undertake, and how much more money they should handle. I do not remember that the requirements of the other Departments are so imperative.

I am persuaded that much money could be saved by the adoption of the plan I had the honor to suggest ; concentrating the purchase of supplies for the City's use, in fewer, if not in single hands. The economy resulting has been estimated at over one eighth of a million dollars. It is worthy of your considerate attention.

The figures I present suggest that the tax rate could be reduced to $1.80 from $1.85, and a sum raised for the expenses of the Department $301,044.22 greater than the amount to which they had been limited even at the higher rate in 1883. Perhaps the surplus at the end of the year might add several hundred thousand to this increase, but your calculations must be based upon the figures before you and the needs of the public service.

The more necessary of the improvements might be commenced, but any great increase of the tax-rate should be anxiously avoided. The evil effects of the era of bad government and unreckoning extravagance are upon us. The cost, in the debt, and the purchase, in the work, must both be borne by this generation of tax-payers: look to it that their hope of good government, at the lowest price compatible with that expectation, be not disappointed: I commend them and it to your care.

With great consideration, your obedient servant,

S. DAVIS PAGE,

City Controller.

APPENDIX No. 247.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS No. 1, OF THE COUNTY OF PHILADELPHIA.

December Term, 1882, No. 139.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, ex relatione, Thomas H. Gesner and Lewis C. Cassidy, Esquire, Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, versus

The City of Philadelphia.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, }
County of Philadelphia. } ss.

TO THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, GREETING:

WHEREAS, Thomas H. Gesner, lately in our Court of Common Pleas No. 1, for the County of Philadelphia, to wit: on the twenty-third day of December, A. D. 1882, presented his petition, setting forth :

I. That the street now called Woodland avenue, running from Forty-ninth street to Cobb's creek, in the Twenty-seventh Ward, of the City of Philadelphia, is one of the public highways of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, within the limits of the City of Philadelphia, and has been used as a public highway for more than one hundred years.

II. That said relator is the owner in fee of a messuage and lot of ground, situate on the northwesterly side of said highway, northeast of Sixty-eighth street, in which himself and his family reside, and is also owner in fee of an undivided sixth part, and lessee for a term of years of the whole of a tract of land containing about nine acres, situate on the northwest side of said highway, northeast and southwest of Sixty-fifth street (which runs through the same), on which he now, and for many years past, has carried on a brick-yard, for the purpose of the manufacture and sale of bricks ; for the use, occupation, and enjoyment of both of which properties, the first mentioned as a place of residence, with ingress and egress to and from the said highway, and the last mentioned as a brick-yard, with his own teams and those of his customers hauling bricks and other articles pertaining to his business to and from the yard, and thence up and down the said highway between the points above named, it is necessary that the said highway should be kept and maintained in good order and repair, and in a condition safe and convenient for ordinary travel, in which condition for a long time prior to the committing of the grievances hereinafter mentioned, and at the time your relator erected his residence and established his business thereon, said highway was kept and maintained.

III. That it was and is the duty of the City of Philadelphia, the defendant, to keep and maintain the said highway in the aforesaid good order and repair, and in a condition safe and convenient for ordinary travel, so that the relator may have the lawful use of the same, as aforesaid : but in disregard and neglect of such duty, the said defendant for a long space of time prior hereto has failed and refused, and still continues to fail and refuse, to keep and maintain the said highway in good order and repair, or in a condition safe and convenient for ordinary travel, and has, and still does, permit the same to be and remain greatly out of repair, and in a dilapidated, rough, uneven, muddy and impassable condition, so that it is difficult, dangerous and unsafe to pass along or across the same, or to maintain lawful ingress and egress between relator's said properties and the said highway, and by reason of such neglect, default and failure of duty on the part of defendant, the relator is deprived of the lawful use and enjoyment of his properties abutting on said highway, and is greatly hindered and put to great costs, expenses and loss in the carrying on of his business, and thereby suffers irreparable injury.

IV. That the relator is without other adequate specific legal remedy in the premises.

V. And praying that a writ of mandamus might issue from out said court, directed to the City of Philadelphia, commanding it forthwith to repair the said Woodland avenue, from Forty-ninth street to Cobb's creek, in the Twenty-seventh Ward, of the City of Philadelphia, so that the said highway shall be and remain in good order and repair, and in a condition safe and convenient for ordinary travel, or show cause why such writ of mandamus should not issue.

AND WHEREAS, on the twenty-first day of March, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and eighty-three (A. D. 1883), Lewis C. Cassidy, Esquire, Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, moved our said court for leave to be made a party plaintiff; and on the same day it was ordered that the record be amended by adding his name as party plaintiff.

Wherefore, we command that the City of Philadelphia, aforesaid, do forthwith repair the said Woodland avenue, from Forty-ninth street to Cobb's creek, in the Twenty-seventh Ward, of the City of Philadelphia, so that the said Woodland avenue shall be and remain in good order and repair, and in a condition safe and convenient for ordinary travel.

Witness, the Honorable Joseph Allison, Doctor of Laws, President of our said Court at Philadelphia, the fourth day of April, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and eighty-three (A. D. 1883).

APPENDIX No. 260.

Philadelphia, September 20, 1883.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The Committee on Finance, respectfully report that they have considered a communication from the City Treasurer, enclosing a claim made on him by the Auditor General of the State, for taxes collected by the city on personal property, during the years 1877, 1878, 1879, and 1880, and for the reasons contained in the report of the Sub-Committee, hereto appended, submit the annexed resolution, and recommend its passage.

Henry Clay, (Ch'n), James Whitaker, Thos. M. Hammett, S. R. Marshall, Chas. Roberts, David Wallace, J. W. Patton, Jno. Taylor, Peter Monroe, John H. Graham, Thos. Green, George R. Snowden, Edw. W. Patton, Edward Matthews, J. Dallas Hall, John Bardsley.

Philadelphia, September 10, 1883.

TO HENRY CLAY, ESQ., Chairman,

And the Members of the Committee on Finance.

GENTLEMEN:—Your Sub-Committee, to whom was referred the communication from the City Treasurer, enclosing a claim made on him by the Auditor General of the State, for taxes collected by the city on personal property, during the years 1877, 1878, 1879, and 1880, amounting to forty-seven thousand and fifty-nine (47,959) dollars and ninety-five (95) cents, said amount not having been paid over to the state by the city, as required by law, beg to report having conferred with the City Solicitor, who furnished the enclosed opinion, from which it would appear as if the city would have to pay the claim; but we are informed by the parties representing the state that the presentation of said claim opens up the settlements between the city and state for the years named, and it having come to our knowledge that the city has to some extent a good and valid offset to at least a part of said claim, we, therefore, are of opinion that the proper steps should be taken by the city to properly present said offset to the state; and inasmuch as the information was obtained from a member of the bar, who, by reason of his intimate knowledge of state and city tax matters, having made that class of cases a specialty, and after a conference with the City Solicitor, we have concluded that it will be to the interest of the city to retain Mr. Newlin, who, in conjunction with the City Solicitor, will present our case before the state authorities.

We therefore report back the accompanying resolution, and ask its passage.

John Bardsley (Ch'n), Chas. Roberts.

Philadelphia, June 11, 1883.

JOHN BARDSLEY, ESQ., Chairman, &c.

DEAR SIR:—Your favor of the 5th inst., relative to the claim of the Commonwealth for personal taxes collected in excess of the amount paid over by the city, in the years 1877, 1878, 1879, and 1880, has been received, together with the statement of the Auditor General.

I advise you as follows :

The effect of the legislation of the state, and the judicial decisions thereupon, in reference to the settlement of accounts between the state and the city relative to taxes, is as follows :

A valuation is annually made by the Revenue Commissioner, which, if not appealed from, within the time prescribed by law, imposes upon the county a liability for taxes to the state for the full amount thereof, whether the same be actually collected by the county or not.

The amount of this assessment is the minimum amount payable by the city, and, if the collections made subsequently thereto are in excess thereof, it is also liable to the state for the full amount of such excess.

It is, of course, for Councils to determine whether payment of the amount due should not be voluntarily made or deferred, until after suit is brought, and judgment recovered by the Commonwealth therefor.

Yours, very truly,

WM. NELSON WEST,

City Solicitor.

APPENDIX No. 273.

Philadelphia, September 18, 1882.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—Several bridges over the Meadow ditch or canal, in the First Ward, were built by the city some eleven years ago, and have had scarcely any repairs since. They are now quite unsafe, and generally need entire rebuilding. They are not upon the lines of public highways, but were built to accomodate farmers in that vicinity, and furnish their only means of crossing to a market over a ditch that was built, and is maintained by the city. The cost of the necessary repairs and renewals will be about one thousand five hundred (1,500) dollars, and this department has no funds available for the purpose. Unless something is done at once, several farmers will have their communication entirely cut off.

Another point that urgently needs attention, is the repaving of old Second street, south from Mifflin street, where the cobblestones are plowed up so badly that it is impossible for teams to get through the cart-way of the street. The whole travel has been diverted to the sidewalk. This is the main avenue of communication with the southern portion of the First Ward, and sadly needs repairs. The cost to repair with cobblestones, will not be less than five hundred (500) dollars.

The Highway Department has at present no means available for the purpose.

Respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

APPENDIX No. 274.

Philadelphia, September 11, 1882.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—In compliance with the language of ordinance of March 31, 1883, the following advertisement was inserted April 19: "Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Chief Commissioner of Highways until one o'clock, P. M., on Monday, April 30, for constructing wrought iron bridges, with masonry and approaches, over the Connecting Railroad, upon the lines of Sixth and Second streets, also, Kensington and Frankford avenues, said bridges to be constructed upon plans to be approved by the Chief Engineer and Surveyor, and Board of Surveyors. The total amount to be paid by the city for the above bridges not to exceed fifty thousand (50,000) dollars." When bids were opened, April 30, a single bid only was received for this work, and that in the name of William L. Ziegler, for bridge over Connecting Railroad upon the line of Second street, for the sum of twelve thousand five hundred (12,500) dollars. No award of contract was made under this bid. In fact, we were advised by the City Solicitor not to enter into any contract, by reason of an injunction restraining the Pennsylvania Railroad Company from changing the grade of the Connecting Railroad. Subsequently this injunction was removed, and on July 3, Mr. Ziegler wrote, inquiring what action we proposed to take in the matter, when we replied as follows: "We cannot see how we are at liberty to contract for building one of the four bridges, as the ordinance provides fifty thousand (50,000) dollars for the four bridges, and our advertisement asked for bids for four bridges, and not for each bridge separately."

As the matter has been lately brought to the attention of Councils, the Chief Commissioner respectfully reports the above.

Respectfully,

JOHN D. ESTABROOK,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.
